Huang, 2005-12-06 200Ts Vision of Vision One of my formative childhood experiences was in 1968 stepping into the Uptown Theater on Connecticut Avenue in Washington DC one of the few movie theaters nationwide that projected in large screen cinerama I was there at the urging of a friend who said I simply must see the remarkable film whose run had started the previous week You won't understand it he said but that doesn't matter All I knew was that the film was about science fiction and had great special effects So I sat in the front row of the balcony munched my popcorn sat back and experienced what was widely touted as the ultimate trip 2001 A Space Odyssey My friend was right I didn't understand it but in some senses that didn't matter Even today after seeing the film 40 times I continue to discover its many subtle secrets I just had the sense that I had experienced a creation of the highest aesthetic order unique fresh awe inspiring Here was a film so distinctive that the first half hour had no words whatsoever the last half hour had no words either and nearly all the words in between were banal and irrelevant to the plot quips about security through Voiceprint identification how to make a phonecall from a space station government pension plans and so on
