Directors & Officers (D & O) Liability Simon Deakin, Helmut Koziol, Olaf Riss, 2018-02-19 In recent years several cases concerning the liability of directors and officers have courted controversy Arguments raised in such discussions oscillate between two extremes on the one hand the need for governing bodies to give a space to entrepreneurial discretion and on the other hand to ensure the protection of investors in and creditors of a company from the consequences of disadvantageous decisions by those bodies In light of the geographical dispersal of the above stakeholders the study offers a comparative insight into the liability of directors and officers in 10 key European jurisdictions in particular Austria Czech Republic Germany Italy the Netherlands Norway Poland Spain and Switzerland and 4 non European jurisdictions namely Brazil Israel Turkey and the United States Amongst other things it investigates existing company law principles on the topic and examines their interaction with tort law and other fields with a view to suggesting principles for better stakeholder protection National reports are complemented by an economic analysis and insurance conflict of laws and comparative reports The study also benefits from case study analyses

Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance Adolfo Paolini, Deepak Nambisan, 2020-11-25 With the ever increasing number of claims against directors and officers this book provides a very welcome addition to the bookshelves which hitherto have lacked books on this important area Alison Green Chairman of the Trustees of the BILA Charitable Trust This book scrutinises the origins and the rationale underlying D O insurance and provides answers to the question of protecting directors against the potential liabilities they may face It provides clear understanding about D O policies wording exclusions and issues of misrepresentation The information contained in this new book includes Nature and Legality of D O Liability Insurance D O Exclusions Directors and Officers Liability to Third Parties Directors Liability at Civil Law D O Defence Costs Cover and Allocation Aggregation Principles and D O Cover and the Reinsurance of D O Policies

Directors and Officers Liability John H. Mathias, David M. Kroeger, Matthew M. Neumeier, Jerry J. Burgdoerfer, 2000 This book examines such topics as the risks officers and directors face derivative and class actions and when a corporation is required or allowed to provide indemnification scope of coverage defense obligations policy limits retentions and exclusions settlement allocation policy termination and nonrenewable coverage litigation issues and recent developments in D O liability abroad Directors' and Officers' Liability, 1986 Practising Law Institute,1986 Directors and Officers Liability Insurance David E. Bordon,1998 Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance Ian Youngman,1999-06-04 Directors and officers liability insurance was at one time considered essential only for large public corporations Now no public limited company anywhere in the world should be without it Large private companies charities financial institutions pension funds and all executive directors need to consider the risks It is a widely held misconception that legal action cannot be taken against individual directors of limited liability companies Directors and officers liability insurance is one of the fastest growing areas in the world insurance market Company directors are facing increasingly onerous responsibilities as shareholders demand higher standards of corporate governance Recent years have seen more stringent laws on environmental liability and directorial responsibility for pollution is now a global concern This new edition will answer the questions Just what are the personal liability risks facing directors How can they protect themselves against the increasing possibility of being sued What are the latest developments Ian Youngman cuts through the jargon and explains the intricacies of this kind of cover and how it relates to other forms of insurance He includes examples of claims as well as profiles of insurers specialising in this area He also assesses the current and likely future status of D O cover in all the world markets Directors and Officers Liability Survey,2003

Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance and the Cost of Equity Zhihong Chen,2015 We examine whether directors and officers D O liability insurance affects a firm s cost of equity We find a positive association between D O insurance and the cost of equity Information quality and risk taking appear to be two underlying channels through which D O insurance affects the cost of equity Further tests suggest that this positive association is not due to optimal risk taking as evidenced by a negative market reaction to an increase in D O insurance coverage a lack of improvement in firms cash flow and a low valuation associated with D O insurance Overall our evidence is consistent with the notion that D O insurance weakens the disciplining effect of shareholder litigation leading to an increase in the cost of equity Directors' & Officers' Liability, D&O Insurance and Moral Hazard Wim Weterings,2012 Directors and supervisory board members officers are increasingly being held personally liable Directors Officers D O liability insurance offers directors and supervisory board members ample protection against directors and officers liability On the one hand this has many advantages for the directors and supervisory board members the company and other concerned parties It implies for instance that it is easier for a company to attract good directors With a D O insurance policy there are also improved means of recovery for parties that have been injured which also positively affects the compensatory and preventive functions of liability law On the other hand due to the presence of D O insurance there are fewer financial incentives vis vis directors and officers to act with due care the moral hazard As a result the preventive function of liability law is in principle undermined or at least negatively affected by the D O insurance D O insurers can however take various measures in an attempt to mitigate the moral hazard For potential injured parties the company the insurer and society those measures are of tremendous importance for ensuring the risk of damage loss remains as low as possible Field research shows however that the moral hazard is being insufficiently addressed by D O insurers in the Netherlands There are restrictions to the instruments that the Dutch D O insurers are currently using to reduce the moral hazard What is more not all possible instruments are being used This most likely also holds true for D O insurers in other European countries and in the United States in light of the research of Baker Griffith 2010 It is however necessary to ensure that the moral hazard is optimally addressed and that the incentives for careful acts of management from liability law continue to be retained as much as possible That is why it is desirable for D O insurers to start implementing a retention for the Side A coverage for the liability of directors and officers Directors & Officers Liability Insurance Deskbook Michael R. Davisson, 2011 Be it enhancements or restrictions the scope of D O policy coverage has reflected the corporate events of the time most frequently as outlined in case decisions interpreting the same

Directors' and Officers' Liability Dan L. Goldwasser, 1992 Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance and Earnings Conservatism Hsiu-Mei Liao, 2016 Using C Score which is a firm year measure of earnings conservatism developed by Khan and Watts 2009 this study examines the effect of directors and officers liability D O insurance on earnings conservatism and explores whether the increased litigation risk caused by firm s cross country listing would influence the relationship between D O insurance and earnings conservatism With a sample of years 2008 2010 the empirical result confirms a significantly positive relationship between D O insurance and earnings conservatism Furthermore our findings suggest that the greater the D O insurance coverage the stronger the relationship between D O insurance and earnings conservatism Finally we do not find any significant evidence that cross country listing helps strengthen the aforementioned relationship Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance and the Cost of Equity Capital Zhihong Chen, 2017 We examine whether directors and officers D O liability insurance affects a firm s cost of equity We find a positive association between D O insurance and the cost of equity Information quality and risk taking appear to be two underlying channels through which D O insurance affects the cost of equity Further tests suggest that this positive association is not due to optimal risk taking as evidenced by a negative market reaction to an increase in D O insurance coverage a lack of improvement in firms cash flow and a low valuation associated with D O insurance Overall our evidence is consistent with the notion that D O insurance weakens the disciplining effect of shareholder litigation leading to an increase in the cost of equity Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance and Corporate Innovation Rongli Yuan, 2019 We examine whether directors and officers D O liability insurance affects corporate innovation We find a positive association between D O insurance and innovation The result is robust to a series of robustness checks including Heckman model longer test windows of corporate innovation and a difference in differences analysis based on a propensity score matched sample Our further analyses show that the impact of D O insurance on innovation becomes more pronounced for firms with lower risk tolerance higher litigation risk and a stronger willingness to innovate Finally we find that risk taking appears to be the underlying channel through which D O insurance affects innovation

Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance, Independent Director Behavior and Governance Effect Ning Jia, 2017 We examine the effect of directors and officers liability insurance D O insurance on the behavior of independent directors and the effectiveness of their governance role Using a unique dataset we find a negative relation between D O insurance and personal board meeting attendance by independent directors and a positive relation between D O insurance and meeting attendance by authorized representatives Content analysis of independent director opinion reports indicates that D O insurance encourages independent directors to behave less responsibly Insured independent directors are also more likely to be busy Collectively D O insurance reduces the effectiveness of independent directors in corporate governance
