Dirty Dealing:

Dirty Dealing Gary Cartwright, 2010-11 A hell of a story about drugs corruption and violence told by a virtuoso Playboy magazine Dirty Dealing a true story chronicles the rise and fall of the house of Chagra The Chagra brothers of El Paso were pioneers in smuggling drugs across the Mexican border and were infamous for their fabulous wealth But in the end Lee Chagra was gunned down a federal judge was assassinated Jimmy and Joe Chagra were imprisoned and Charles Harrelson actor Woody Harrelson's father was convicted for the judge's murder When Federal Judge John Maximum Wood was shot outside his home in San Antonio Texas in 1979 the first assassination of a federal judge in more than a hundred years his death sent waves of shock across the country The FBI labeled it the crime of the century Former President Nixon expressed outrage calling for quick arrest and punishment But the crime's solution would be anything but fast Dragging on for years and costing 11 4 million the investigation turned out to be the largest in recent FBI history surpassing even that of President John F Kennedy's assassination Gary Cartwright senior editor of Texas Monthly and author of several nonfiction bestsellers details the full history of the events leading up to this crime and the trials that followed in Dirty Dealing This reprint from Cinco Puntos Press includes a new afterword by the author Complete with shady maneuverings on the part of the federal government and an outcome that Kirkus Reviews has called straight from Oz Dirty Dealing is one of the richest and most fascinating of all true crime stories From the Author Gary Cartwright I don't claim much of a literary background The town where I grew up Arlington Texas had a tiny library above the fire station The first writer who truly impressed me and caused me to wonder if there was something out there for me was Hemingway For a long time I tried to emulate his clean crisp style and feeling for life and death I was going pretty well with Hemingway when I got sidetracked by Durrell's Alexandria Quartet at which time I lapsed into my Purple Period Nelson Algren's Walk on the Wildside I think I read some Conrad about the same time got me out of the stench of lyrical overripe nonsense and back in the dust where I belonged Somewhere in there I read Robert Stone's A Hall of Mirrors and later Dog Soldiers and began to understand that a writer's true function was storytelling Like a lot of writers my age my head was turned by reading J D Salinger though I didn't understand him I came to prefer William Goldman who wrote more to my level and with a skill I could appreciate and borrow from I know it's popular in literary circles to dismiss Goldman as a hack gone Hollywood but I wish I had his gift as a storyteller In recent years I have fallen in love with such mystery writers as Raymond Chandler Dashiell Hammett and John LeCarr There is something cynical and laconic in the way these writers weave a story as though to say life really has no resolution it's just one damn thing after another but worthwhile if it's done right Two books that influenced my own works were David Storey's This Sporting Life which I read shortly before beginning my football novel The Hundred Yard War and Truman Capote's In Cold Blood which was the inspiration for my two latest books Blood Will Tell and Dirty Dealing I am fascinated by this genre and have come to recognize that life imitating art is every bit as literate as art imitating life In a way I can't quite explain Dirty Dealing was influenced too by John Reed's Insurgent Mexico Reed got across a feeling for how the isolation of desert wastelands gives both a meaning and a meaninglessness to life and how codes within cultures are more permanent than laws within nations

Fixed: Cheating, Doping, Rape and Murder - The Inside Track on Australia's Racing Industry Matthew Benns,2012-11-01 Matthew Benns takes us

inside the murky world of Australia's racing industry Dapper horse trainer Les Samba was in Melbourne for the annual yearling sales when he turned down an Italian meal with racing contacts saying I have got to meet a bloke Just hours later he was laying dead in the middle of the road with blood pouring from five bullet wounds to his head and body Racing in Australia has a dark and dangerous underbelly Powerful people play for high stakes in an industry worth 14 billion a year And they don't play nicely Yearling sales are rigged horses doped races fixed and taxes dodged by high rolling punters Every day huge sums of money are made by bookies who don't want to put any of it back into the industry Meanwhile jockeys starve and sweat themselves to the point of delirium many dying or suffering permanent injury while racing for as little as 130 a race Young female jockeys are raped often by the trainers they work for This is the true story every racing fan needs to read It goes past the glorious image of the Melbourne Cup winner holding his hand aloft to reveal what really goes on in the dark and murky corridors of Australian racing It tells you about the bent jockeys cheating trainers crooked owners and greedy bookies Everyone wants an angle in racing this book tells you just how often that means the race is Fixed

Grosso,2022-06-14 When a young screenwriter goes online to check out the promotional website for a new poker movie called Rounders he's shocked to discover how similar it is to a screenplay he wrote a few years earlier and submitted to a number of studios When he later sees the Miramax produced film in theaters he is astonished by the number of overlapping elements the protagonist playing Texas Hold'em to pay his way through college while deceiving the girlfriend who believes he's quit the loss of everything he has in a single hand of high stakes Hold'em a character named Worm and many other commonalities that form the foundation of what will become his lawsuit against Miramax He leaves the theater that day feeling that not only has the studio stolen his script but his life which had encompassed years of professional poker playing that informed the screenplay he hoped would open the door to a writing career in Hollywood Against all odds he proceeds to take on Miramax and the Hollywood system with the help of an ingenious lawyer Jeffrey Grosso simply has to prove how it could have happened and convince a judicial system that often favors studios over writers that he's a victim of intellectual property theft which results in a ten year landmark legal battle against Hollywood's most notorious studio Part comic legal thriller part nail biting poker memoir Dirty Dealing Grosso v Miramax Waging War Against Harvey Weinstein and the Screenplay that Changed Hollywood is the entertaining look at one man's fight to get the credit he believes he deserves Does he have a case or are the similarities just an illusion the mind plays on a creator Perhaps there are only five stories in Hollywood as his lawyer points out and no idea is truly original You be the judge The Highwayman ,1921 The Oil Weekly ,1921 Belgium ,1941 The Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night Leonard C.
