Disappearance A Memoir Of Loss:

Navigating Loss in Women's Contemporary Memoir A. Prodromou, 2015-06-29 Navigating Loss in Women's Contemporary Memoir traces the grief process through the lives of contemporary women writers to show how its complex multi layered nature can encourage us towards new understandings of loss Psychoanalytic Memoirs Jeffrey Berman, 2022-11-17 The first book length study of the psychoanalytic memoir this book examines key examples of the genre including Sigmund Freud's mistitled An Autobiographical Study Helene Deutsch's Confrontations with Myself An Epilogue Wilfred Bion's War Memoirs 1917 1919 Masud Khan's The Long Wait Sophie Freud's Living in the Shadow of the Freud Family and Irvin D Yalom and Marilyn Yalom's A Matter of Death and Life Offering in each chapter a brief character sketch of the memoirist the book shows how personal writing fits into their other work often demonstrating the continuities and discontinuities in an author's life as well as discussing each author's contributions to psychoanalysis whether positive or negative The Publishers Weekly, 2009 Acadia, Missing Links of a Lost Chapter in American History Edouard Richard, 1895 Library Journal, 1999 Proceedings - Institution of Mechanical Engineers Institution of Mechanical Engineers (Great Britain), 1924 Missing Lindsay Harrison, 2011-08-02 A beautifully written intensely poignant memoir that looks at grief family dynamics and what happens when your world comes crashing down A twenty five year old recent graduate of Columbia University's MFA program Lindsay Harrison began writing Missing as a way to cope with a terrible loss During her sophomore year at Brown University Lindsay received a phone call from her brother that her mother was missing Forty days later they discover the unthinkable their mother's body had been found in the ocean Missing is at first a page turning account of those first forty days as it chronicles dealings with detectives false sightings wild hope and deep despair The balance of the story is a candid emotional exploration of a daughter's search for solace after tragedy as she tries to understand who her mother truly was makes peace with her grief and becomes closer to her father and brothers as her mother's death forces her to learn more about her mother than she ever knew before Missing Sarah Vries Maggie De, 2008-07-08 On April 14 1998 Sarah de Vries disappeared from her usual spot on the corner of Princess and Hastings in Vancouver She became one of the many women who had vanished from the Downtown Eastside women most of them sex workers and drug addicts whose DNA would later be found on the Pickton farm Reflecting on her adopted sister's story through Sarah's own poetry and journals and the recollections of those close to her at home and downtown Maggie uncovers the portrait of a bright charismatic woman who found herself trapped in a downward spiral of self loathing prostitution drugs and violence In this achingly honest book the reader is drawn into revelations and understanding just as Maggie was Tragic though it was in many ways Sarah's life had meaning Memoir Cornell University. Agricultural Experiment Station, 1957 Memoir, 1959 When Grief Calls Forth the Healing Mary Rockefeller Morgan, 2014-04-01 In 1961 Michael Rockefeller son of then governor of New York State Nelson A Rockefeller mysteriously disappeared off the remote coast of southern New Guinea Amid the glare of international public interest the governor along with his daughter Mary Michael's twin set off on a futile search only to return empty handed and empty hearted What followed were Mary's twenty seven year repression of her grief and an unconscious denial of her twin's death which haunted her relationships and controlled her life In this startlingly frank and moving memoir Mary R Morgan struggles to claim an individual identity which enables her to face Michael's death and the huge loss it engendered With remarkable honesty she shares her spiritually evocative healing journey and her story of moving forward into a life of new beginnings and meaning especially in her work with others who have lost a twin The sea change began one November day in 1961 I remember the moment before A window in the corner of my parents living room drew my attention A windblown branch from an azalea bush scratched the surface of the glass making a discordant sound My father stands out clearly his figure powerful and solid next to the soft down pillowed sofa By the window my two brothers and I are clustered around my mother wary and watching him It was barely two months since Father had separated from her And just days before he'd called a press conference choosing to publicly expose his affair and his decision to remarry Father held a yellow cablegram in his hand Mike my twin brother was missing off the coast of New Guinea Missing The s sound Like a thin knife it slipped deep inside me No resistance just a sharp knowing pain and then shimmering silence Adapted from Chapter One
