Disarming The Nation

Charles Brandt, Carlos Brandt

Disarming The Nation:

Disarming the Nation Elizabeth Young, 1999-12-15 In a study that will radically shift our understanding of Civil War literature Elizabeth Young shows that American women writers have been profoundly influenced by the Civil War and that in turn their works have contributed powerfully to conceptions of the war and its aftermath Offering fascinating reassessments of works by white writers such as Harriet Beecher Stowe Louisa May Alcott and Margaret Mitchell and African American writers including Elizabeth Keckley Frances Harper and Margaret Walker Young also highlights crucial but lesser known texts such as the memoirs of women who masqueraded as soldiers In each case she explores the interdependence of gender with issues of race sexuality region and nation Combining literary analysis cultural history and feminist theory Disarming the Nation argues that the Civil War functioned in women's writings to connect female bodies with the body politic Women writers used the idea of civil war as a metaphor to represent struggles between and within women including struggles against the cultural prescriptions of civility At the same time these writers also reimagined the nation itself foregrounding women in their visions of America at war and in peace In a substantial afterword Young shows how contemporary black and white women including those who crossdress in Civil War reenactments continue to reshape the meanings of the war in ways startlingly similar to their nineteenth century counterparts Learned witty and accessible Disarming the Nation provides fresh and compelling perspectives on the Civil War women's writing and the many unresolved civil wars within American culture today The Nation, 1921 National Republic, 1929 National Republican, 1927 Nation, 1921 Unity, 1928

Raskin, 2016-09-16 First Published in 1992 This volume includes Raskin's political essays on true democracy in running a nation's security affairs He explores the arrogance of power offers a commitment to constructive critique of government policy and alternative proposals to resolve problems of a nation trying to live up to the principles of the Declaration of Independence International Civics Pitman Benjamin Potter, Roscoe Lambert West, 1927 The Interior, 1921 Issues for Jan 12 1888 Jan 1889 include monthly Magazine supplement The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Feinberg, Paul D. Feinberg, 2010-11-04 Aldous Huxley's 1932 book Brave New World foresees a world in which technological advances have obliterated morality and freedom John Feinberg and Paul Feinberg in the first edition of Ethics for a Brave New World noted how Huxley landed frighteningly close to the truth Their book responded to ethical crises such as abortion euthanasia capital punishment and genetic engineering by looking to Scripture for principles to guide us through the moral quagmires of our time Now dramatically updated and expanded this edition of Ethics for a Brave New World seeks to maintain the relevance rigorous scholarship and biblical faithfulness of the first edition While many of the topics covered in the book remain the same John Feinberg has revised each chapter to keep it current with contemporary trends and to respond to the most recent scholarship

There is a new chapter on stem cell research and greatly expanded material on issues such as homosexuality and genetic engineering This important resource will be a valuable guide for students and those seeking answers to ethical dilemmas
