Pearlstein, 2009-06-03 The nature and goals of terrorist organizations have changed profoundly since the Cold War standoff among the U S Soviet and Chinese superpowers gave way to the current polyplex global system in which the old rules of international engagement have been shattered by a new struggle for power among established states non state actors and emerging nations In this confusing state of global disorder terrorist organizations that are privately funded and highly flexible have become capable of carrying out incredibly destructive attacks anywhere in the world in support of a wide array of political religious and ethnic causes This groundbreaking book examines the evolution of terrorism in the context of the new global disorder Richard M Pearlstein categorizes three generations of terrorist organizations and shows how each arose in response to the global conditions of its time Focusing extensively on today's transnational i e privately funded and internationally operating terrorist organizations he devotes thorough attention to the two most virulent types ethnoterrorism and radical Islamic terrorism He also discusses the terrorist race for weapons of mass destruction and the types of attacks

Wood, 2005-05-30 The subject of church and state is one intimately associated with the history of Christianity and Western civilization However the subject is one that is by no means limited to any one religious tradition civilization or period of history Rather it is a subject that has historical and universal significance to all cultures and religious traditions throughout the world It is simply undeniable that religion has been and remains a powerful force in the making and shaping of cultures civilizations nations and empires For this reason this volume addresses the broader perspectives of religion and the state in the ancient world as well as in the biblical world of Judaism and Christianity and in other religious traditions than Christianity Attention is given to general works on church and state that treat the subject broadly not limited to any particular nation religious tradition or single aspect of church state relations Additionally there is material on major topics integrally related to church and state such as civil disobedience civil religion liberation theology patriotism and nationalism Finally sources are included on religion in international affairs and interfaith relations both necessarily linked to the subject of church and state as well as religion and the economic order religion and human rights and the effect of religion on war and peace Deadly Doctrine Wendell Watters, 1992-12-01 No Marketing Blurb Disciples of Destruction Charles W.

Sutherland, What's going on in the world Every day we hear more horror stories about the wars in the Middle East Americans are afraid to travel world wide because of their justified fears of terrorism And here at home we watch with amazement as the fundamentalists battle over control of a TV empire riddled with sex and drugs with a scenario that makes prime time television look tame As money sex and power once again take their toll Disciples of Destruction examines religion itself and the role it has played since time as we know it began Sutherland uncovers and analyzes the real ramifications of organized religion and its devastating effects on Western civilization Disciples of Destruction is packed with little known vignettes that are sure to astonish amuse and sometimes even outrage the reader Few will fail to be drawn in by the account of the Corpse Synod in which a Pope's body was exhumed put on trial for high crimes and subsequently dragged through the streets of Rome or shocked by the plausible contention that Albino Luciani elected Pope John Paul I in 1979 but destined to reign for only 33 days did not die a natural death but was in fact assassinated Sutherland convincingly concludes that organized religion even today maintains the proclivities of its barbaric origins as Israeli expansionism the Vatican's obsession with its financial empire the atrocities of Khomeini's Islamic Republic and Marxist militarism and repression amply demonstrate These proclivities updated to our century indicate that while the long battle to liberate the mind from the fear of tyranny continues the slow process of slaying the dragons of mythology is not keeping step with the pace of nuclear weapons development and deployment which accelerates in the context of an equally explosive growth of religious fundamentalism Unchecked this makes armageddon the easiest prophecy to fulfill      Terrorism, 2002-2004 Edward F.
