

Crisis Counseling

Free crisis counseling services can help survivors cope with trauma. Counselors meet with adults and children affected by a disaster in non-traditional settings such as shelters, homes and community buildings – not in clinical or office settings.

The program is administered through a partnership between FEMA and the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration Center for Mental Health Services (SAMHSA). SAMHSA's Disaster Distress Helpline, 800-985-5990, provides 24/7, 365-days-a-year crisis counseling and support to people experiencing emotional distress related to natural or human-caused disasters.
