The Crisis of Possession in Voodoo Louis Mars,1977      The Afterlives of Kathleen Collins L. H. Stallings,2021-12-07

An absorbing portrait of a groundbreaking Black woman filmmaker Kathleen Collins 1942-88 was a visionary and influential Black filmmaker Beginning with her short film The Cruz Brothers and Miss Malloy and her feature film Losing Ground Collins explored new dimensions of what narrative film could and should do However her achievements in filmmaking were part of a greater life project In this critically imaginative study of Collins L H Stallings narrates how Collins as a Black woman writer and filmmaker sought to change the definition of life and living The Afterlives of Kathleen Collins A Black Woman Filmmaker's Search for New Life explores the global significance and futurist implications of filmmaker and writer Kathleen Collins In addition to her two films Stallings examines the broad and expansive and varying forms of writing produced by Collins during her short life time The Afterlives of Kathleen Collins showcases how Collins used filmmaking writing and teaching to assert herself as a poly creative dedicated to asking and answering difficult philosophical questions about human being and living Interrogating the ideological foundation of life writing and cinematic life writing as they intersect with race and gender Stallings intervenes on the delimited concepts of life and Black being that impeded wider access distribution and production of Collins's personal cinematic literary and theatrical works The Afterlives of Kathleen Collins definitively emphasizes the evolution of film and film studies that Collins makes possible for current and future generations of filmmakers      The Voodoo Encyclopedia Jeffrey E. Anderson,2015-08-26 This compelling reference work introduces the religions of Voodoo a onetime faith of the Mississippi River Valley and Vodou a Haitian faith with millions of adherents today Unlike its fictional depiction in zombie films and popular culture Voodoo is a full fledged religion with a pantheon of deities a priesthood and communities of believers Drawing from the expertise of contemporary practitioners this encyclopedia presents the history culture and religion of Haitian Vodou and Mississippi Valley Voodoo Though based primarily in these two regions the reference looks at Voodoo across several cultures and delves into related religions including African Vodun African Diasporic Religions and magical practices like hoodoo Through roughly 150 alphabetical entries the work describes various aspects of Voodoo in Louisiana and Haiti covering topics such as important places traditions rituals and items used in ceremonies Contributions from scholars in the field provide a comprehensive overview of the subject from various perspectives and address the deities and ceremonial acts The book features an extensive collection of primary sources and a selected general bibliography of print and electronic resources      Shifting the Ground Rachel Stein,1997 From a perspective of ecofeminist theory author Rachel Stein suggests that selected writings by Emily Dickinson Zora Neale Hurston Alice Walker and Leslie Marmon Silko metaphorically revise American concepts of nature gender and race Stein shows that by reinterpreting nature these writers transform their characters from social objects into self empowered subjects      Anger, Madness, and the Daimonic Stephen A.
