Crisis And Catharsis The Power Of The Apocalypse:

Crisis and Catharsis Adela Yarbro Collins, 1984-01-01 For the first time in complete form the results of recent analyses of the Apocalypse are presented in a way that is easily understood by the beginning student and challenging to the scholar looking for a fresh approach In a clear and vivid manner Adela Yarbro Collins discusses the authorship of the book of Revelation when it was written the situation it addressed the social themes it considered and the psychological meaning behind apocalyptic language

Crisis and catharsis : the power of the Apocalypse Adela Yarbro Collins, 1984 Sex Working and the Bible Avaren Ipsen, 2014-12-18 The Bible contains many stories of prostitution Feminist and liberation readings of these biblical narratives have often made sex workers invisible Sex Working and the Bible examines stories of biblical prostitution through the experiences and understanding of sex workers today The Bible narratives ranging across Rahab in the Book of Joshua the story of Solomon and the two prostitutes the anointing women traditions and the apocalyptic vision of the whore of Babylon in Revelation are set within both a practical and theoretical framework This radical book offers a new more inclusive way of approaching issues of gender sexuality and prostitution in the Bible

Imperial Bibles, Domestic Bodies Mary Wilson Carpenter, 2003 Exploring the production and consumption of British commercial family bibles this book sheds light on the history of women's sexuality and the English view of such taboo subjects as same sex relations masturbation menstruation and circumcision

Here Comes the Judge Matthew Streett, 2012-02-16 Matthew Streett considers violence in Revelation particularly the book's demand that Christians act non violently contrasted with the violence of God depicted in the text

Making See C. M. A. van Ekris, 2018-06-20 What is theologically and homiletically happening in prophetic sermons This empirical theological study offers an analysis of the prophetic dimension in contemporary practices of preaching including sermons from Bonhoeffer King and Tutu and from Dutch local contexts After a phenomenological opening five theological concepts are extracted from the studied sermons exposing destructiva interrupting dominant discourses recognising the Word overcoming destructiva and edifying the congregation In this study prophetic speech is reconstructed as an illuminative interplay between epiphanic and inductive aspects

Spectacles of Empire Christopher A. Frilingos, 2013-03-25 The book of Revelation presents a daunting picture of the destruction of the world complete with clashing gods a multiheaded beast armies of heaven and the final judgment of mankind The bizarre conclusion to the New Testament is routinely cited as an example of the early Christian renunciation of the might and values of Rome But Christopher A Frilingos contends that Revelation's relationship to its ancient environment was a rather more complex one In Spectacles of Empire he argues that the public displays of the Roman Empire the games of the arena the execution of criminals the civic veneration of the emperor offer a plausible context for reading Revelation Like the spectacles that attracted audiences from one end of the Mediterranean Sea to the other Revelation shares a preoccupation with matters of spectatorship domination and masculinity Scholars have long noted that in promising a complete reversal of fortune to an oppressed minority Revelation has provided inspiration to Christians of all kinds from liberation theologians protesting globalization to the medieval Apostolic Brethren facing death at the stake But Frilingos approaches the Apocalypse from a different angle arguing that Revelation was not merely a rejection of the Roman world in favor of a Christian one rather its visions of monsters and martyrs were the product of an empire whose subjects were trained to dominate the threatening other By comparing images in Revelation to those in other Roman era literature such as Greek romances and martyr accounts Frilingos reveals a society preoccupied with seeing and being seen At the same time he shows how Revelation calls attention to both the risk and the allure of taking in a show in a society which emphasized the careful scrutiny of one s friends enemies and self Ancient spectators Frilingos notes whether seated in an arena or standing at a distance as Babylon burned frequently discovered that they themselves had become part of the performance     Emotions, Moral Formation, and Christian Politics Jonathan M. Cahill,2024-08-22 This volume addresses the social relational nature of moral formation emotions and moral agency Drawing on Barth s theological anthropology and his relational conception of the self Cahill argues that Barth envisions moral progress as rooted in the growth of the community Cahill also explores Barth s view of emotion in conversation with the study of emotions in psychology sociology neuroscience and philosophy Building on Barth and these other disciplines Cahill argues for a relational and cognitive conception of emotions while highlighting emotions critical role in regulating group and social relations Emotions are fundamental to interpersonal interactions to group relations and for the reinforcement and disruption of social structures This account of moral formation and emotion is illustrated through the example of climate change A community shaped by love for God solidarity with other creatures and a concern for all of creation leads to an awareness of hegemonic forces and fosters emotions shaped by the kingdom of God that enables the struggle for climate justice     New Testament History and Literature Dale B. Martin,2012-04-24 In this engaging introduction to the New Testament Professor Dale B Martin presents a historical study of the origins of Christianity by analyzing the literature of the earliest Christian movements Focusing mainly on the New Testament he also considers nonbiblical Christian writings of the era Martin begins by making a powerful case for the study of the New Testament He next sets the Greco Roman world in historical context and explains the place of Judaism within it In the discussion of each New Testament book that follows the author addresses theological themes then emphasizes the significance of the writings as ancient literature and as sources for historical study Throughout the volume Martin introduces various early Christian groups and highlights the surprising variations among their versions of Christianity     The Qumran Chronicle ,2004     Horizons ,1966     The Chicago Theological Seminary Register Chicago Theological Seminary,1985 Alumni directory issue 1859 1951 v 44 no 4 v 45 no 1     Cosmologies of Suffering Agita Lūse,Imre Lazar,2007 The edited volume elaborates on a range of themes that emerged during a workshop of the 8th biennial of the European Association of Social Anthropologists in Vienna in 2004 Among these themes are the paradoxical permanence of transition in post communist countries the accompanying persistence of social suffering and the structural conditions that give rise to it A final theme focuses on the resources that people mobilize to cope with suffering and trauma Ways of coping manifest a stance towards agency shared by sufferers from diverse post communist regions such as ethnically divided Croatia politically and economically unstable Zimbabwe relatively more peaceful countries such as Hungary Poland and Slovenia and finally two religiously unique areas in Siberia Russia Ethnographic accounts from these diverse settings testify that agency has often involved relinquishing reliance on one's self and turning towards a power higher than the self whether this is conceptualized through the lens of transcendence religion or cosmology This is a fascinating new series of ethnographic studies of specific mostly Eastern European and ex Soviet mystically orientated communities grappling with existential issues of suffering and meaninglessness Following the collapse of Soviet hegemonic communism and the well known revitalisation of traditional and New Age worldviews many people have embraced alternative cosmologies to generate new identities and meanings that are not dependant on empirically derived positivistic perspectives This book is major theoretical and ethnographically based contribution to understanding the profound social and personal transformations of worldviews and lived practices that have subsequently developed Professor Iain Edgar Senior Lecturer in Social Anthropology University of Durham UK Feast and Future Håkan Ulfsgård,1989 The Revelation of St. John the Divine Harold Bloom,1988 Understanding the Bible Stephen L. Harris,2000 This is a nonsectarian guide for students undertaking their first systematic study of the Bible giving information on archaeological data and historical background and providing material on the date authorship and theological content of each book of the Old and New Testaments Biblical Research ,1995 Journal of the Chicago Society of Biblical Research The New Testament Bart D. Ehrman,1997 This lucid introduction approaches the New Testament from a consistently historical and comparative perspective emphasizing the rich diversity of the earliest Christian literature Rather than shying away from the critical problems presented by these books Ehrman addresses the historical and literary challenges they pose and shows why scholars continue to argue over such significant issues as how the books of the New Testament came into being who produced them what they mean how they relate to contemporary Christian and non Christian literature and how they came to be collected into a canon of Scripture Distinctive to this study is its emphasis on the historical literary and religious milieu of the Greco Roman world including early Judaism As part of its historical orientation this text also discusses works by other Christian writers who were roughly contemporary with the New Testament such as the Gospel of Thomas the Apocalypse of Peter and the letters of Ignatius Instead of simply setting forth scholarly views without explanations Ehrman includes the evidence that scholars have found persuasive for their views engaging students and demonstrating why scholars have taken the positions they have Ideal for undergraduate and seminary classes in the New Testament biblical studies and Christian origins The New Testament A Historical Introduction to the Early Christian Writings is an accessible clearly written introduction that encourages students to consider the historical issues surrounding these writings     Elenchus of Biblica ,1990     The New Testament in Its Literary Environment David Edward Aune,1987 A Magisterial handbook with its careful and lucid analysis of literary types and parallels and valuable bibliographic guidance is a standard work a constant companion and a starting point for many a research paper and scholarly study
