Crisis and Prosperity in Sung China John Winthrop Haeger, 1975      Crisis and Prosperity in Sung China John Winthrop Haeger, 1975      Crisis and Prosperity in Sung China Winthrop Haeger, 1975      The Song-Yuan-Ming Transition in Chinese History Paul Jakov Smith, Richard von Glahn, 2020-03-23 This volume seeks to study the connections between two well studied epochs in Chinese history the mid imperial era of the Tang and Song ca 800 1270 and the late imperial era of the late Ming and Qing 1550 1900 Both eras are seen as periods of explosive change particularly in economic activity characterized by the emergence of new forms of social organization and a dramatic expansion in knowledge and culture The task of establishing links between these two periods has been impeded by a lack of knowledge of the intervening Mongol Yuan dynasty 1271 1368 This historiographical black hole has artificially interrupted the narrative of Chinese history and bifurcated it into two distinct epochs This book aims to restore continuity to that historical narrative by filling the gap between mid imperial and late imperial China The contributors argue that the Song Yuan Ming transition early twelfth through the late fifteenth century constitutes a distinct historical period of transition and not one of interruption and devolution They trace this transition by investigating such subjects as contemporary impressions of the period the role of the Mongols in intellectual life the economy of Jiangnan urban growth neo Confucianism and local society commercial publishing comic drama and medical learning      Order and Transcendence , 2021-12-06      Routledge Handbook of Chinese Architecture Jianfei Zhu, Chen Wei, Li Hua, 2022-11-30 This handbook representing the collaboration of 40 scholars provides a multi faceted exploration of roughly 6 000 years of Chinese architecture from ancient times to the present This volume combines a broad spectrum approach with a thematic framework for investigating Chinese architecture integrating previously fragmented topics and combining the scholarship of all major periods of Chinese history By organizing its approach into five parts this handbook Traces the practices and traditions of ancient China from imperial authority to folk culture Unveils a rich picture of early modern and republican China revealing that modernization was already beginning to emerge Describes the social intellectual ideological and formal enterprises of socialist architecture Frames a window on a complex and changing contemporary China by focusing on autonomy state practices and geopolitics of design ultimately identifying its still evolving position on the world stage Examines the existing cultural and political theories to highlight potential avenues for future transformations in Chinese architecture that also retain Chinese identity Providing a pioneering combination of ancient and modern Chinese architecture in one coherent study this book is a must read for scholars students and educators of Chinese architecture architectural history and theory and the architecture of Asia      China's Motor Hill Gates, 2018-10-18 This monumental work reveals the continuities that underlie the changing surface of Chinese life from late imperial days to modern times With a perspective that encompasses a thousand years of Chinese history China's Motor provides a view of the social economic and political principles that have prompted people in widely varying circumstances to act believe and behave in ways that are labeled as Chinese This original reinterpretation of Chinese culture as meticulous in detail as it is vast in scope will revise not only the study of China but also the very terms of social analysis     The Bulletin of Sung and Yüan Studies ,1978

Chinese Imperial City Planning Nancy Shatzman Steinhardt,1999-04-01 Chinese Imperial City Planning is the first synthesis of what is known from textual and archaeological evidence about every Chinese imperial capital from earliest times to the present It explains the fundamental architectural principles and visual characteristics of imperial planning in China and shows how these features are related to the Chinese idea of rulership The volume also reconstructs the 3 500 year old history of imperial planning using sources such as resident descriptions travel accounts official Chinese court records and the most recent archaeological and scholarly studies The extensive documentation provides students with a standard source of reference from which to embark on further research on Chinese urban planning     The Development of

Underdevelopment in China Philip C. Huang,1980 Originally published in Modern China vol 4 no 3 July 1978 and vol 6 no 1 January 1980     Crisis and Prosperity in Sung China ,1982     The Magic Square Alfred Schinz,1996 Presents the development of Chinese urbanism Equipped with source material and maps this book applies metrological methods Including about 300 drawings it gives an overall view of the urban life and culture that existed in the traditional society of late Imperial China     Ku Yen-wu's Response to "the Demise of Human Society" Thomas Carl Bartlett,1985     Korean Studies ,2004

A Comparison of Chu Hsi and Martin Luther Chia-li Luo,1990     □□□□□□ ,1989     International Review of Social History ,1988     China's Cultural Heritage Richard J Smith,1994-07-20 Based on the author s careful rethinking of certain themes and arguments presented in the first edition this revised version of China s Cultural Heritage also draws heavily upon the enormous body of new scholarship on Chinese history and culture that has appeared in the last decade Although focused primarily on the Qing Dynasty the book not only sheds valuable light on the distant past but it also helps us to understand China s contemporary problems of modernization     Book Review Index ,1985 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
