Crisis Intervention 3rd:

The Crisis Intervention Manual, 3rd Edition Kurt Christiansen, Kurt Christiansen Psy D, 2018-02-25 The Crisis Intervention Manual has been utilized in over 100 crisis and counseling centers worldwide It is a powerful and comprehensive training tool for professional and non professional counselors in developing the skills of conscious communication active listening and crisis intervention The Manual provides a step by step easy to understand guide for the majority of types of calls or situations a counselor may encounter suicide domestic violence child abuse depression rape addiction mental illness sex and sexuality and more This manual is different from other training books in that it invites the counselor to examine their own self with practical exercises to expand empathy and release judgments that can interfere with being an effective helper More than anything this book is designed to inspire motivate and build confidence Social Workers' Desk Reference Albert R. Roberts, 2009 This is a new edition of the wildly successful everyday reference for social workers Like the first edition it has been crafted with the help of an extensive needs assessment survey of educators and front line practitioners ensuring that it speaks directly to the daily realities of the profession It features 40% new material and a more explicit focus on evidence based practice Theoretical Perspectives for Direct Social Work Practice Nick Coady, 2008 Print CourseSmart An Introduction to Applying Social Work Theories and Methods Barbra Teater, 2014-03-01 A student friendly introduction to social work theories and methods drawing on current social work research From Trauma to Healing Ann Goelitz, Abigail Stewart-Kahn, 2013 From Trauma to Healing A Social Worker's Guide for Working With Survivors is the next significant publication on trauma in the field of social work Since September 11 and Hurricane Katrina social workers have come together increasingly to consider how traumatic events impact practice From Trauma to Healing is designed to provide direction in this process supporting both the field's movement towards evidence based practice and social workers growing need to be equipped to work with trauma It does so in the practical guide format already proven to be compelling to social work students educators and practitioners providing case examples and addressing social workers unique ecological approach Social Work Models, Methods and Theories Paul Stepney, Deirdre Ford, 2000 In a climate for practice increasingly shaped by global economic and social forces the importance of a reflective discourse about the place of theory in practice is paramount This book argues how social work can be a credible and relevant factor in the lives of people who use its services Trauma Counseling Lisa Lopez Levers, 2012-03-15 A worthy addition to a graduate training bookshelf I was a bit daunted by the large almost 600 page book that landed on my desk but once I started reading it I had a hard time putting it down Melanie D Hetzel Riggins PhD Penn State Journal of Trauma and Dissociation This book is heavy in weight and heavy in substance It may be that you will not read this book from cover to cover but it is likely that you will jump in and out and often Illness Crisis and Loss Lisa Lopez Levers's work delivers an important contribution to enable beginning professionals to be familiarised with the basics of trauma and to provide specialists with her hidden gems of insight Her decision to cover trauma in its broadest sense allows her textbook to provide innovative insights into real world concepts such as hate racism oppression and evil in respect to trauma Intervention Trauma Counseling is a comprehensive multidisciplinary guide to the theory and treatment of survivors of a broad spectrum of traumatic events including interpersonal violence hate crimes school violence community violence natural disasters and war and terrorism It is written by a Fulbright scholar who is internationally recognized for her work with traumatized populations in Rwanda several southern African countries Russia and the United States It also includes the contributions of researchers from the United States Australia Africa and Europe The book discusses evidence based trauma assessment and intervention techniques and integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology It focuses on issues of loss and grief survivorship and disability genocide natural disasters the impact of war on civilians and veterans and the distinct effects of trauma in early childhood childhood and adolescence Also addressed are ethical perspectives and methods of self care for counselors who work with this population The text will be of value to graduate counseling students and professional counselors as well as social workers psychologists psychiatric nurses and other human service providers who will be able to attend to trauma survivors with a depth of knowledge and confidence The contents of Trauma Counseling not only fulfill but exceed the requirements of The Council of Accreditation and Counseling and Related Educational Program CACREP standards Key Features Addresses the theory and treatment of trauma survivors of interpersonal violence hate crimes school violence community violence natural disasters and war and terrorism Provides a multidisciplinary approach to treatment that integrates findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology Includes evidence based counseling techniques Illuminates the intersections of trauma crisis and disaster issues exceeding related requirements of CACREP standards Examines ethical dimensions and the need for self care among trauma counselors Emphasizes the relevance of clinical supervision in trauma care Offers topic relevant resources at the end of each chapter Cumulated Index
