Remembering Patrick White ,2010-01-01 Remembering Patrick White presents the first major study of the full range of White s work in over twenty five years and aims to bring this important author up to date for new generations of readers and scholars Patrick White is a writer of moods and perspectives and the essays collected here range in their focus over his public presentations his formal challenges his spiritual leanings and dramatic gestures They examine the breadth and significance of White s intellectual contribution and consider the ongoing legacy of his thought and his art within national and international frames As a collection they focus our attention on what Patrick White means at the juncture of the present reading his work through contemporary critical perspectives that further underscore the dynamism and substance of his writing Contributors Bill Ashcroft Veronica Brady Bernadette Brennan Lorraine Burdett Greg Graham Smith John McCallum Lyn McCredden Elizabeth McMahon Brigitta Olubas Brigid Rooney Jennifer Rutherford Anthony Uhlmann Critical Essays on Patrick White Peter Wolfe,1990 Patrick White: "The Tree of Man" ,1972 Witnessing the Past Sigrun Meinig,2004 Prophet from the Desert John D. McLaren,Mary-Ellen Ryan,1995 Essays on the Song Cycle and on Defining the Field ,2022-07-18 This volume assembles twelve interdisciplinary essays that were originally presented at the Second International Conference on Word and Music Studies at Ann Arbor MI in 1999 a conference organized by the International Association for Word and Music Studies WMA The contributions to this volume focus on two centres of interest The first deals with general issues of literature and music relations from culturalist historical reception aesthetic and cognitive points of view It covers issues such as conceptual problems in devising transdisciplinary histories of both arts cultural functions of opera as a means of reflecting postcolonial national identity the problem of verbalizing musical experience in nineteenth century aesthetics and of understanding reception processes triggered by musicalized fiction The second centre of interest deals with a specific genre of vocal music as an obvious area of word and music interaction namely the song cycle As a musico literary genre the song cycle not only permits explorations of relations between text and music in individual songs but also raises the question if and to what extent words and or music contribute to creating a larger unity beyond the limits of single songs Elucidating both of these issues with stimulating diversity the essays in this section highlight classic nineteenth and twentieth century song cycles by Franz Schubert Robert Schumann Hugo Wolf Richard Strauss and Benjamin Britten and also include the discussion of a modern successor of the song cycle the concept album as part of today s popular culture The Cambridge Companion to the Australian Novel Nicholas Birns,Louis Klee,2023-03-02 The Cambridge Companion to the Australian Novel provides a clear lively and accessible account of the novel in Australia The chapters of this book survey significant issues and developments in the Australian novel offer historical and conceptual frameworks and demonstrate what reading an Australian novel looks like in practice The book begins with novels by literary visitors to Australia and concludes with those by refugees In between the reader encounters the Australian novel in its splendid contradictoriness from nineteenth century settler fiction by women writers through to literary images of the Anthropocene from sexuality in the novels of Patrick White to Waanyi writer Alexis Wright's call for a sovereign First Nations literature This book is an invitation to students instructors and researchers alike to expand and broaden their knowledge of the complex histories and crucial present of the Australian novel The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society Movement and Belonging Carol E. Leon, 2009 The uncertainties and newness that surround us today prompt radical questions about ourselves and our relationship with the external world How do and can we belong to the places and spaces of today Movement and Belonging Lines Places and Spaces of Travel describes current realities and suggests ways in which you can define yourself in an ever changing world Using the travel writings of V S Naipaul Michael Ondaatje Patrick White and D H Lawrence Movement and Belonging demonstrates that authentic travel embracing changing boundaries and cultures enables you to create sites of belonging where you can find your sense of self

Patrick White May-Brit Akerholt, 2023-12-14 Patrick White was one of the world's main literary figures but often neglected as a playwright outside Australia His first four plays performed between 1961-1965 were instrumental in changing the directions of Australian theatre This book presents an overview of Patrick White's life and work as well as a critical analysis of his plays Patrick White's Fiction Carolyn Bliss, 1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White's fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979 Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White's poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White's world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm Modern Drama Scholarship and Criticism 1981-1990 Charles A.
