4 – effectiveness of the CFSP

There is no shortage of activities framed within the (very generally defined) treaty goals.

- Activity relies primarily on a combination of diplomacy, Community instruments, and conditionality.
- Effective action has tended to rely heavily on the big three states working closely with the High Representative.
- There is institutional complexity.
- EU foreign policy is best viewed as being part of a two level European foreign policy system: a system that does not always display cohesion.
