Critical Review Of In Religion 1988:

Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1997 Thriving in the Wake of Trauma Thema Bryant-Davis, 2008-02-08
Thema Bryant Davis examines the cultural issues that health care professionals need to consider in caring for trauma survivors God's Apocalyptic Insurrection Richard D. Crane, 2024-10-15 What if our inherited theologies of salvation are distorted by a sinful history that includes white supremacy slavery and colonial conquest What if we perpetuate this distortion by continuing to imagine salvation as a legal transaction by which we are saved by God from divine punishment If salvation merely rectifies the individual's standing before God justice and human flourishing are viewed as peripheral to the gospel This book begins with a bit of deconstruction But the real need is construction or perhaps the discovery of another soteriological imagination To be saved is to be drawn into union with Jesus Messiah the bringer of the now and future reign of God where all things are rectified Jesus's life death and resurrected body are the space where a disordered creation is put right Jesus is God's apocalyptic insurrection against every power that dehumanizes harms and destroys human persons We are saved by the triune God by God's gracious acceptance that cannot be earned But we are saved for participation in the invasion of God's reign of justice healing and transformation Salvation has everything to do with caring for refugees resisting systemic racial and other injustices food for the hungry and valuing human persons as Christ incognito The Possibility of Satan Alan McGill, 2021-05-04 Can we know that Satan exists as a particular disembodied spirit Current Catholic teaching insists that Satan exists as a person a fallen angel who has instigated the Fall of humanity continues to influence humans today and constitutes a singular nemesis to God How one might ask could human beings know such a thing with certainty In response this book seeks to rescue the mythical language in which the doctrine of Satan is rooted so that it is freed from the unreasonable expectation that it affirms the existence of a particular creature and can instead express theological truth that is of relevance to all free willed creatures In doing so it addresses thorny questions concerning the interpretation of Scripture the relationship between God and evil between doctrine and truth between the Church and modernity and between the condemnatory impulses apparent in Christian thought and the doctrine of an omnipresent God of infinite mercy The book detects in the doctrine of Satan the expression of fundamental truths concerning the Creator creature relationship truths that are too easily obfuscated in current formulations that invite either fundamentalism or incredulity Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc William Jerdan, William Ring Workman, Frederick Arnold, John Morley, Charles Wycliffe Goodwin, 1835 Many Roads Lead Eastward Robert D. Miller II, OFS, 2016-10-27 Is there a gap between the academic study of the Bible and the work of theologians What lies behind this gap And most important how have biblical scholars tried to bridge the gap with hermeneutical methods This book addresses the exegesis vs theology impasse and categorizes the most important attempts to bridge it over the past century especially those of the last decades These attempts are assessed and evaluated so that readers can see the philosophies undergirding each and the potential each has for a true theological interpretation of the Bible The Athenaeum ,1854 Dictionary Catalog of the University Library, 1919-1962 University of California, Los Angeles.
