Passing on the Faith Merton P. Strommen, Dick Hardel, 2008 From the Introduction This book is about passing on the faith from generation to generation throughout the milestones of a person's life Faith is created and nurtured by the Holy Spirit through the Gospels The vision underlying the RADICAL model was developed in light of the theological principle that faith is formed by the Holy Spirit through personal trusted relationships often but not always in our own homes A youth and family ministry for the 21st century connects all the generations in the total ministry of the congregation and through the cross of Christ recognizes the work of the Holy Spirit shaping faith in all the circles of relationships This revised edition expands on the authors original model in an all new chapter on the circle of creation This edition has also been updated throughout in light of new ideas and research that have emerged during the past decade

China's Higher Education Reform and Internationalisation

Janette Ryan, 2011-03-07 Despite radical and fundamental reform of the Chinese higher education system very little is known about this outside China The past decade has seen radical reform of all levels of China's education system as it attempts to meet changing economic and social needs and aspirations this has included transformation of university curricula pedagogy and evaluation measures rapidly increasing joint research and degree programmes between Chinese universities and universities abroad and very large numbers of Chinese students studying at universities outside China This book describes the historical cultural intellectual and contemporary background and contexts of the reform and internationalisation of higher education in China It discusses these changes outlines the challenges posed by the changes for university administrators faculty researchers students and those working with Chinese academics and students in China and abroad and assesses the impact and evaluates the success of the changes Most importantly it considers how this mobility of people and ideas across educational systems and cultures can contribute to new ways of working and understanding between Western and Chinese academic cultures The book is a companion to Education Reform in China which focuses on reform at the early childhood primary and secondary levels
