Critical Humanism The Politics Of:

Critical Humanism and the Politics of Difference Jeff Noonan, 2003-09-05 Noonan shows that at the core of postmodern philosophy with its claim that culture creates humans is a concern to dethrone the modern understanding of human beings as subjects as builders of their world and free when those world building activities are the outcome of free choices He explains that because the postmodern conception of human being does not capture what is universal in all humans it is incapable of critically responding to the forcible subordination of different cultures to European humanity When oppressed groups explain why they struggle against oppression they invoke just that idea of human being as subjectivity that postmodern philosophy claims is the basis of oppression Noonan argues that the voices of cultural differences when they struggle against the forces of hatred and exclusion do not ground themselves just in the particular value of their culture but in the universal value of human freedom and self determination

Critical Humanism Ken Plummer, 2021-09-01 We live in a mutilated world and our humanity seems irrevocably damaged Many critics suggest we have reached the end of humanity In this challenging book Ken Plummer suggests that such claims may be premature instead what we need is a new transformative understanding of humanity Critical Humanism critically reflects upon and reimagines humanism for the twenty first century What is now required is a fresh wide ranging imaginary of an open worldly plural and caring humanity It needs to take a critical stance towards older often divisive ideas of what it means to be human while reconnecting to a wider understanding of the rich diversity of life in the pluriverse In an age of post and transhumanist turns Plummer provides a personal political and passionate call for thinkers researchers and activists to not turn their backs on humanism We need instead to create a vital new political imaginary of being human in a connected planet We simply cannot afford to be anti human or posthuman Restoring our belief in humanity has never been more important for edging towards a better world for all

Ontological Politics in a Disposable World Luigi Pellizzoni, 2016-03-03 This book explores the intertwining of politics and ontology shedding light on the ways in which as our ability to investigate regulate appropriate enhance and destroy material reality have developed so new social scientific accounts of nature and our relationship with it have emerged together with new forms of power Engaging with cutting edge social theory and elaborating on the thought of Foucault Heidegger Adorno and Agamben the author demonstrates that the convergence of ontology with politics is not simply an intellectual endeavour of growing import but also a governmental practice which builds upon neoliberal programmes the renewed accumulation of capital and the development of technosciences in areas such as climate change geoengineering and biotechnology With shifts in our accounts of nature have come new means of mastering it giving rise to unprecedented forms of exploitation and destruction with related forms of social domination In the light of growing social inequalities environmental degradation and resource appropriation and commodification Ontological Politics in a Disposable World The New Mastery of Nature reveals the need for new critical frameworks and oppositional practices to challenge the rationality of government that lies behind these developments a rationality that thrives on indeterminacy and an account of materiality as comprised of fluid ever changing states simultaneously agential and pliable to which social theory increasingly subscribes without questioning enough its underpinnings and implications A theoretically sophisticated reassessment of the relationship between ontology and politics which draws the contours of a renewed humanism to allow for a more harmonious relationship with the world this book will appeal to scholars in social and political theory environmental sociology geography science and technology studies and contemporary European thought on the material world Documents of Life 2 Ken Plummer, Kenneth Plummer, 2001-03-20 This study champions the use of life stories and other personal documents in social research It considers recent developments in the humanist approach to social research looking at writing and narrative memory and the auto biographical society Critical Perspectives on Human Rights Birgit Schippers, 2018-09-25 Critical Perspectives on Human Rights provides cutting edge interventions into contemporary perspectives on rights ethics and global justice The chapters written by leading scholars in the field make a significant and timely contribution to critical human rights scholarship by interrogating the significance of human rights for critical theory and practice While the contributions engage sensitively yet thoroughly with the regulatory disciplinary and exclusionary effects of human rights they do so without giving up on the transformative potential of human rights By thinking productively through the exclusions paradoxes and aporias of human rights Critical Perspectives on Human Rights is a key reference text for students and scholars in this important area of inquiry The Politics of Socialism Richard Howard Stafford Crossman, 1965 Essays on the development of domestic and foreign policy by a Labor Party member of the British Parliament stressing the theory and practice of individual freedom The Harvard Graduates' Magazine William Roscoe Thayer, 1920 Telos , 2009 A Source Book of American Political Theory Benjamin Fletcher Wright, 1929 The Politics of Deconstruction Martin McQuillan, 2007-08-20 Leading scholars discuss ideology and hotly contested post structuralist theory The North American Review James Russell Lowell, Charles Eliot Norton, Henry Adams, Allen Thorndike Rice, Lloyd Stephens Bryce, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Joseph Hilton Smyth, Robert Dana, Robley Wilson, Vicente F. Gotera, Rachel Morgan, J. D. Schraffenberger, Grant Annis George Tracey, 1925 Vols 227 230 no 2 include Stuff and nonsense v 5 6 no 8 Jan 1929 Aug 1930 Disability & the Politics of Education Susan Lynn Gabel, Scot Danforth, 2008 Disability and the Politics of Education An International Reader is a rich resource that deals comprehensively with the many aspects of the complex topic of disability studies in education For nearly two decades global attention has been given to education as a human right through global initiatives such as Education for All EFA and the Salamanca Statement Yet according to UNESCO reaching the goals of EFA remains one of the most daunting challenges facing the global community Today millions of the world s disabled children cannot obtain a basic childhood education particularly in countries with limited resources Even in the wealthiest countries many disabled children and youth are educationally segregated from the nondisabled particularly if they are labeled with significant cognitive impairment International agencies such as the United Nations and the World Bank have generated funds for educational development but unfortunately these funds are administered with the assumption that west is best thereby urging developing countries to mimic educational policies in the United States and the United Kingdom in order to prove their aid worthiness This McDonaldisation of education reproduces the labeling resource allocation and social dynamics long criticized in disability studies The authors in this volume explore these subjects and other complexities of disability and the politics of education In doing so they demonstrate the importance and usefulness of international perspectives and comparative approaches The Critical Review of Theological & Philosophical Literature Stewart Dingwall Fordyce Salmond,1904

From Critical Theory to Critical Political Theology Rudolf J. Siebert,1994 At present in European and American civil society a new paradigm of doing not only psychology sociology and philosophy but also comparative religiology and theology is emerging it is called communicative rationality and action A new communicative theology and religiology are also arising Their central theme is the theodicy problem The present study approaches this theme in the framework of a critical political theology and comparative religiology in a narrative and discursive fashion In search for a solution to the theodicy problem we explore with the help of the critical theory from Max Horkheimer through Walter Benjamin and Theodor W Adorno to J rgen Habermas and with the assistance of the new political theology from Johann B Metz through Helmut Peukert to Edmund Arens the psychological sociological philosophical and theological constellation of universal freedom reconciliation and non possessive love and solidarity out of personal autonomy and sovereignty The Young People's Movement in the American Lutheran Church Gerald Jenny,1928
