Critical Perspectives On Naguib Mahfouz:

Critical Perspectives on Naguib Mahfouz Trevor Le Gassick, 1991      A Brief Introduction to Modern Arabic Literature David Tresilian, 2012-03-12 Modern Arabic literature remains little known and poorly understood despite growing curiosity among European readers This brief introduction offers a unique overview focusing on developments over the last fifty years It provides a guide to the literary landscape indicating the major landmarks in the shape of authors ideas and debates The picture that emerges shows that the literature of the modern Arab world Europe s closest neighbour is not so far from us as we are sometimes encouraged to think This is a timely contribution to the dialogue between East and West bringing modern Arabic literature into the mainstream for English speaking readers      The Postcolonial Arabic Novel Muhsin Al-Musawi, 2003-04-09 This is the first study of its kind to tackle the postcolonial in Arabic fiction In ten chapters a lengthy preface and an extensive bibliography the author discusses and questions a large number of novels that demonstrate cultural diversity and richness in the Arab World Using current methodologies and discourse analysis the author highlights engagements with postcolonial issues that relate to identity formation the modern nation state individualism nationalism gender and class demarcations and micro politics With this intention the book locates Arabic narrative in the mainstream of world literature and establishes the modern Arabic novel in the contemporary literary critical world of postcolonial studies The author s lucid style and thorough knowledge of the field should recommend the book to students and scholars alike as it comes in time to meet the needs of the academy for solid writing on Islam and the Arabs      Critical Perspectives on Ngugi Wa Thiong'o G. D. Killam, 1984 This appraisal of the Kenyan novelist playwright essayist and scholar Ngugi wa Thiong'o focuses on his first five novels and his collection of essays entitled Homecoming The book discusses the literary and political influences on Ngugi his use of folklore and his depiction of women      The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma'arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void

Critical Perspectives on Modern Arabic Literature Issa J. Boullata, 1980      Text and Trauma Ian Richard Netton, 2012-12-06 An essay in literary criticism with a difference addressing the nature of blasphemy and using selected novels by Salman Rushdie Najib Mahfuz and Nikos Kazantzakis as case studies      Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature      Egypt 1919 Heshmat Dina Heshmat, 2020-05-28 The 1919 anti colonial revolution is a key moment in modern Egyptian history and a historical reference point in Egyptian culture through the century This book offers a close reading of a wide range of novels films plays and memoirs that feature this momentous historical event By examining canonised as well as neglected works Dina Heshmat highlights the processes of remembering and forgetting that have contributed to shaping a dominant imaginary about 1919 in Egypt coined by successive political and cultural elites Informed by concepts of class and gender this book brings out a number of issues that underlie the memory of 1919 in Egypt as it is constantly evolving by ongoing social cultural and political struggles As the author seeks to understand how and why so many voices have been relegated to the margins she reinserts elements of the different representations into the dominant narrative This opens up a new perspective on the legacy of 1919 in Egypt inviting readers to meet the marginalised voices of the revolution and to reconnect with its layered emotional fabric      Appreciating the Difference Donald E. Herdeck, 1998      Intertextuality in Tayeb Salih's Season of Migration to the North Sofia Samatar, 1997
