Critical Political Studies Abigail B. Bakan, Eleanor MacDonald, 2002-03-25 Written as a tribute to the remarkable intellectual career of Colin Leys the debates in this book deal with some of the most pressing problems confronting the majority of citizens in both first world and third world contexts Their contributions provide the confidence to pursue new possibilities that permit a more optimistic if critical outlook Topics covered include contemporary debates about globalization and the nation state African development prospects for British socialism after Blair social movements and current issues in political and social theory Contributors include Laurie Adkin University of Alberta Abigail Bakan Bruce Berman Queen's University Manfred Bienefeld Carleton University Alex Callinicos University of York UK Bonnie Campbell University of Quebec at Montreal Michael Chege University of Florida Radhika Desai University of Victoria Lauren Dobell PhD candidate Oxford University Phil Goldman Queen's University Banu Helvacioğlu Bilkent University Turkey Robert Jessop University of Lancaster UK Colin Leys emeritus Queen's University Eleanor MacDonald Marguerite Mendell Concordia University Leo Panitch York University Anne Phillips London School of Economics and Political Science and John Saul Atkinson College York University

Wars of Position? Marxism Today, Cultural Politics and the Remaking of the Left Press, 1979-90 H.F. Pimlott, 2021-12-20 Inspired by Raymond Williams cultural materialism H F Pimlott explores the connections between political practice and cultural form through Marxism Today's transformation from a Communist Party theoretical journal into a glossy left magazine Marxism Today's successes and failures during the 1980s are analysed through its political and cultural critiques of Thatcherism and the left especially by Stuart Hall and Eric Hobsbawm innovative publicity and marketplace distribution relationships with the national UK press cultural coverage design and format and writing style Wars of Position offers insights for contemporary media activists and challenges the neglect of the left press by media scholars

The Halted March of the European Left Matt Myers, 2025-02-06 The European left seemed to be in rude health during the 1970s Never had so many political parties committed to representing the working class been in power simultaneously across the continent New forms of mobilisation led by female immigrant and young wage earners seemed to reflect the growing strength of the workers movement rather than its pending obsolescence Parties and trade unions grew rapidly as a diverse new generation entered the ranks Why did the left's forward march halt so abruptly The Halted March of the European Left shows how the left's defeats after the mid 1970s were not the inevitable result of de industrialisation or more precisely the transition to a globalised and post Fordist world that abolished the working class as a great historical actor Choices that were made during a concentrated but decisive moment contributed to the left's lost battles The British French and Italian left managed the shift to a new era by marginalising those groups of workers who had invested it with hopes of social and political transformation Communist socialist and social democratic parties helped disempower the new components of the working class in workplaces in society in the political system and successfully disciplined their traditional working class supporters The left encountered a crisis of purpose and identity a sense of both defeat and lost opportunities and the dissolution of the idea of a community of fate amongst workers This book provides a comparative analysis of the left's fragmenting relationship with the working class and a feel for the culture of three leading industrial countries during a traumatic transition of late twentieth century history It concludes that decisions taken by the left during the 1970s contributed to the tragic inversion of the expected outcome of that hopeful decade

Negotiating Citizenship A. Bakan, D. Stasiulis, 2003-12-19 Negotiating Citizenship explores the growing inequalities associated with nation based citizenship from the perspective of migrant women workers who have made their way from impoverished Third World countries to work in Canada in the caregiving industries of domestic service and nursing The study demonstrates the impact of the global political economy public and private gatekeeping mechanisms and racialized and gendered stereotypes on the contested relationship between citizen employers and non citizen female migrant workers in Canada

Feminists and Queer Theorists Debate the Future of Critical Management Studies Alison Pullen, Nancy Harding, Mary Phillips, 2017-04-24 What is CMS and what is its future is a question that has beguiled and frustrated academics within and outside its community Using ideas from feminist and queer theory here authors aim to generate thinking on the future of CMS and ideas of how scholarly communities can engage in working lives differently

After the Third World? Mark T. Berger, 2013-10-18 The emergence of the Third World is generally traced to onset of the Cold War and decolonization in the 1940s and 1950s In the 1960s and 1970s the three worlds of development were central to the wider dynamics of the changing international order By the 1980s Third Worldism had peaked entering a period of dramatic decline that paralleled the end of the Cold War Into the 21st century the idea of a Third World and even the pursuit of some form of Third Worldism has continued to be advocated and debated For some it has passed into history and may never have had as much substance as it was credited with while others seek to retain or recuperate the Third World and give Third Worldism contemporary relevance Beginning with a comprehensive introduction this edited volume brings together a wide range of important contributions Collectively they offer a powerful overview from a variety of angles of the history and contemporary significance of Third Worldism in international affairs The question remains did the Third World exist what was it does it still have intellectual and political purchase or do we live in a global era that can be described as After the Third World This book was previously published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Critical Political Studies Debates And Dialogues From The Left: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Critical Political Studies Debates And Dialogues From The Left : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
