Critical Response To Joan Didion:

The Critical Response to Joan Didion Sharon Felton, 1994 Joan Didion is a major contemporary American novelist and journalist whose works have popular appeal and are widely studied from a variety of literary perspectives as well as for philosophical psychological and political insights into the times and topics with which they deal This volume collects an extensive range of critical commentary both reviews and scholarly examinations including newly commissioned essays covering the entire canon four works of fiction and five of nonfiction published between 1963 and 1992 Individually the selections explore diverse critical approaches to Didion s canon collectively they establish a critical map that will serve as a guide to future scholarship A substantive introduction assesses the canon and the critical reaction to it Other features include a brief chronology of Didion s accomplishments a bibliography and contributors and subject indexes The Critical Response to Gloria Naylor Sharon Felton, Michelle Loris, 1997-09-23 As the author of The Women of Brewster Place Linden Hills Mama Day and Bailey s Cafe Gloria Naylor is widely respected as one of the most important contemporary African American women writers This volume provides comprehensive coverage of the critical response to her works The book is divided into sections devoted to each of Naylor s novels Within each section seminal articles and book chapters comment on her writing Special attention is given to African American and feminist perspectives on her canon In addition many of the essays discuss the relationship of Naylor s novels to the works of classical authors such as Chaucer Dante and Shakespeare and to significant modern writers thus the volume charts her sources and influence While some of the essays have appeared previously and are among the most important responses to her writings the book also includes several original pieces An exclusive interview with Naylor an insightful introduction and a substantial bibliography are special features of this reference work A balance of new and previously published material provides a thoughtful overview of the reception of her works A thorough introductory essay discusses Naylor s place in American literature and the themes she treats throughout her novels A chronology summarizes the principal events in her life and career and a substantial bibliography lists works for further reading A special feature is an exclusive interview with Naylor in which she discusses such topics as the role of the politics of gender in her writings her treatment of women the relationship between art and morality her views on race relations her thoughts on the future of literature and on her most recent projects and the manner in which she works and writes Joan Didion Joan Didion, Ellen G. Friedman, 1984 Through the Window, Out the Door Janis P. Stout, 2020-11-10 This informative and provocative study focuses on the centrality of departure in the texts of five major American women novelists An important moment in many novels and poems by American women writers occurs when a central character looks out a window or walks out the door of a house These acts of departure serve to convey such values as the rejection of constraining social patterns the search for individual fulfillment and the entry into the political Janis Stout examines such moments and related patterns of venture and travel in the fiction of five major American novelists of the 20th century Mary Austin Willa

Cather Anne Tyler Toni Morrison and Joan Didion Stout views these five writers within a spectrum of narrative engagements with issues of home and departure a spectrum anchored at one end by Sarah Orne Jewett and at the other by Marilynne Robinson whose Housekeeping posits a vision of female transience Through the Window Out the Door ranges over an expansive territory Moving between texts as well as between texts and contexts Stout shows how women writers have envisioned the walls of physical and social structures including genres as permeable boundaries drawing on both a rhetoric of liberation and a rhetoric of domesticity to construct narrative arguments for women s right to move freely between the two Stout concludes with a personal essay on the dilemmas of domesticity and the ambivalence of departure The Critical Response to John Cheever Francis J. Bosha,1993-11-19 Bosha collects major representative criticism of John Cheever s fiction and his posthumously published Letters and Journals from the earliest reviews of 1943 through to the present The volume provides a clear and comprehensive assessment of Cheever s critical reputation both during his lifetime as each of his books was published and reviewed and retrospectively by academics and literary historians who have sought to place Cheever s work in a larger literary context In addition to several new essays written specifically for this volume this book publishes for the first time a long interview which John Cheever gave less than a year before his death This interview according to Prof Robert G Collins who conducted it is almost certainly the last to be publicly heard The book begins with a critical introductory essay that traces the dominant themes and patterns in Cheever criticism and comments on the critical reception of his work over the last five decades A chronology highlights the chief events in Cheever s life and career The chapters that follow are arranged chronologically with each chapter devoted to one of Cheever s works Within each chapter are selections of criticism The book concludes with a bibliography and index Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche,2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research A Study Guide for Joan Didion's "Democracy" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016-06-29 A Study Guide for Joan Didion s Democracy excerpted from Gale s

Power and Class in Political Fiction David Smit, 2019-09-13 This book introduces Elite Theory to the literary study of class as a framework for addressing issues of the nature of governance in political fiction The book describes the historical development and major tenets of Elite Theory and shows how each of four post war Washington novels Gore Vidal's Washington D C Allen Drury's Advise and Consent Joan Didion's Democracy and Ward Just's Echo House illustrates the way class based political elites exhibit forms of ruling class consciousness and maintain their legitimacy in an ostensibly democratic form of government by promoting themselves as models of behavior promulgating an ideology that justifies their rule through their control of the media and accepting new members from the lower classes Reading these novels through a socio political lens David Smit offers suggestions for ways to work for a more just and equitable society in light of what this analysis reveals about the culture that produces our political elites

Blue Nights (Enhanced Edition) Joan Didion, 2012-01-17 This enhanced eBook edition of Blue Nights includes three short films directed by Griffin Dunne and starring Joan Didion Each film blends Didion's incisive prose with images and mementos from her daughter's life From one of our most powerful writers Blue Nights is a work of stunning frankness about losing a daughter Richly textured with bits of her own childhood and married life with her husband John Gregory Dunne and daughter Quintana Roo this new book by Joan Didion examines her thoughts fears and doubts regarding having children illness and growing old Blue Nights opens on July 26 2010 as Didion thinks back to Quintana's wedding in New York seven years before Today would be her wedding anniversary This fact triggers vivid snapshots of Quintana's childhood in Malibu in Brentwood at school in Holmby Hills Reflecting on her daughter but also on her role as a parent Didion asks the candid questions any parent might about how she feels she failed either because cues were not taken or perhaps displaced How could I have missed what was clearly there to be seen Finally perhaps we all remain unknown to each other Seamlessly woven in are incidents Didion sees as underscoring her own age something she finds hard to acknowledge much less accept Blue Nights the long light evening hours that signal the summer solstice the opposite of the dying of the brightness but also its warning like The Year of Magical Thinking before it is an iconic book of incisive and electric honesty haunting and profoundly moving

Landscapes of the New West Krista Comer, 1999 In the early 1970s empowered by the civil rights and women's movements a new group of women writers began speaking to the American public Their topic broadly defined was the postmodern American West By the mid 1980s their combined works made for a bona fide literary groundswell in both critical and commercial terms However as Krista Comer notes despite the attentions of publishers the media and millions of readers literary scholars have rarely addressed this movement or its writers Too many critics Comer argues still enamored of western images that are both masculine and antimodern have been slow to reckon with the emergence of a new far more feminine postmodern multiracial and urban west Here she calls for a redesign of the field of western cultural studies one that engages issues of gender and race and is more self conscious about space itself_especially that cherished symbol of western authenticity open landscape Surveying works by Joan Didion Wanda Coleman Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Barbara Kingsolver Pam Houston Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros and Mary Clearman Blew Comer shows how these and other contemporary women writers have mapped new geographical imaginations upon the cultural and social spaces of today s American West
