Critical Review Of In Religion 1995:

Faith in Higher Education Hirpo Kumbi, 2024-11-06 The higher education sector currently faces a series of challenges from internationalisation inclusivity financial cost and quality assurance This book examines the church founded model of higher education and argues that this is a promising approach for establishing greater levels of provision in the future especially in developing countries This book contains three case studies undertaken at church founded universities in the UK Kenya and Nigeria founded by church organisations but operating without denominational bias These reveal that this model emphasises the wellbeing of their students over the pursuit of profit and the delivery of relevant courses over easily marketed but unapplicable subjects These studies culminate in a set of recommendations for good practice which will be of use to church leaders policy makers and anyone concerned with widening participation in higher education Ultimately this book encourages co operation between churches and governments when establishing future institutions of higher education for the benefit of all

Thriving in the Wake of Trauma Thema Bryant-Davis, 2008-02-08 Thema Bryant Davis examines the cultural issues that health care professionals need to consider in caring for trauma survivors

God's Apocalyptic Insurrection Richard D. Crane, 2024-10-15 What if our inherited theologies of salvation are distorted by a sinful history that includes white supremacy slavery and colonial conquest What if we perpetuate this distortion by continuing to imagine salvation as a legal transaction by which we are saved by God from divine punishment If salvation merely rectifies the individual s standing before God justice and human flourishing are viewed as peripheral to the gospel This book begins with a bit of deconstruction But the real need is construction or perhaps the discovery of another soteriological imagination To be saved is to be drawn into union with Jesus Messiah the bringer of the now and future reign of God where all things are rectified Jesus s life death and resurrected body are the space where a disordered creation is put right Jesus is God s apocalyptic insurrection against every power that dehumanizes harms and destroys human persons We are saved by the triune God by God s gracious acceptance that cannot be earned But we are saved for participation in the invasion of God s reign of justice healing and transformation Salvation has everything to do with caring for refugees resisting systemic racial and other injustices food for the hungry and valuing human persons as Christ incognito

Freedom of Speech in Universities Alison Scott-Baumann, Simon Perfect, 2021-02-25 Freedom of speech and extremism in university campuses are major sources of debate and moral panic in the United Kingdom today In 2018 the Joint Committee on Human Rights in Parliament undertook an inquiry into freedom of speech on campus It found that much of the public concern is exaggerated but identified a number of factors that require attention including the impact of government counter terrorism measures the Prevent Duty and regulatory bodies including the Charity Commission for England and Wales on freedom of speech This book combines empirical research and philosophical analysis to explore these issues with a particular focus on the impact upon Muslim students and staff It offers a new conceptual paradigm for thinking about freedom of speech based on deliberative democracy and practical suggestions for universities in handling it Topics covered include The enduring legacy of key thinkers who have shaped the debate about freedom of speech The role of right wing populism in driving moral panic about universities The impact of the Prevent Duty and the Charity Commission upon Muslim students students unions and university managers Students and staff views about freedom of speech Alternative approaches to handling freedom of speech on campus including the Community of Inquiry This highly engaging and topical text will be of interest to those working within public policy religion and education or religion and politics and Islamic Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Oral Law of Ancient Israel Robert D. Miller II, OFS, 2022-10-12 This book presents a new window on the legal system of Ancient Israel Building on the understanding that Israel was a society where writing was the medium for some forms of discourse but not others where written texts were performed orally and rewritten from oral performances Robert D Miller II OFS examines law and jurisprudence in this oral and literate world Using Iceland as an ethnographic analogy Miller shows how law was practiced performed and transmitted the way written artifacts of the law fit into oral performance and transmission and the relationship of the detritus of law that survives in the Hebrew Bible both Torah and Proverbs to that earlier social world
