Edward Thomas: from Adlestrop to Arras Jean Moorcroft Wilson, 2015-05-21 Along with Sassoon and Wilfred Owen Edward Thomas is by any reckoning a major first world war poet A war poet is not one who chooses to commemorate or celebrate a war but one who reacts against having a war thrust upon him His great friend Robert Frost wrote his poetry is so very brave so unconsciously brave Apart from a most illuminating understanding of his poetry Dr Wilson shows how Thomas life alone makes for absorbing reading his early marriage his dependence on laudanum his friendships with Joseph Conrad Edward Garnett Rupert Brooke and Hilaire Belloc among others The novelist Eleanor Farjeon entered into a curious ménage à trois with him and his wife He died in France in 1917 on the first day of the Battle of Arras This is the stuff of which myths are made and posterity has been quick to oblige But this has tended to obscure his true worth as a writer as Dr Wilson argues Edward Thomas's poems were not published until some months after his death but they have never since been out of print Described by Ted Hughes as the father of us all Thomas's distinctively modern sensibility is probably the one most in tune with our twenty first century outlook He occupies a crucial place in the development of twentieth century poetry This is the extraordinary life of a poetic genius Animation: A World History Giannalberto Bendazzi, 2015-11-06 A continuation of 1994's groundbreaking Cartoons Giannalberto Bendazzi's Animation A World History is the largest deepest most comprehensive text of its kind based on the idea that animation is an art form that deserves its own place in scholarship Bendazzi delves beyond just Disney offering readers glimpses into the animation of Russia Africa Latin America and other often neglected areas and introducing over fifty previously undiscovered artists Full of first hand never before investigated
