by

GIOVANNI BOCCACCIO

SETTING

The setting took place in Florence, Italy

CHARACTER

Federigo – a young Florentine

Monna Giovanna – the woman who stole the heart of Federigo

Monna's son

SUMMARY

The story starts with a young man named Federigo who gave everything that he had for a woman who did not love him back; Monna, a noblewoman and a beauty. Due to her husband dying, she and her son moved to a countryside near Federigo's house. One day, Monna's son became ill and told her that "The only thing that could make me feel better was if Federigo's falcon were to become mine." So, Monna decided to go to Federigo's house just to learn that the food that they ate was the falcon. Days passed and her son died, her brother told her that she should marry again so she married Federigo as she realizes all his sacrifices just for her.

CONFLICT

Man vs Circumstances

Federigo sacrificed everything he had in order to impress Monna, but Monna did not love him back. He cooked his prized falcon without knowing that the falcon was the reason why she went to his house in the first place.

THEME

People make great sacrifices for love, sometimes with unanticipated consequences. The story shows us about a man who gave up his most prized possessions for the woman he loved. This resulted on him losing everything, including his prized falcon.
