Crocodile Burning Michael Williams, 1994-08 A rich novel about a young man from Soweto whose life changes dramatically when he joins the cast of a musical that travels to Broadway Crocodile Burning, by Michael Williams Elizabeth Maria Davies, 1995 Insights Into Crocodile Burning Shirley Bell, 1996 National Character in South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins, 2006 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now recieved almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Jenkins also makes comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children s literature This book is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand children s literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history BOOK JACKET The Mountain School Greg Alder, 2013 The Kingdom of Lesotho is a mountainous enclave in southern Africa and like mountain zones throughout the world it is isolated steeped in tradition and home to few outsiders The people known as Basotho are respected in the area as the only tribe never to be defeated by European colonizers Greg Alder arrives in Tsoeneng in 2003 as the village s first foreign resident since 1966 Back then the Canadian priest who had been living there was robbed and murdered in his quarters Set up as a Peace Corps teacher at the village s secondary school Alder finds himself incompetent in so many unexpected ways How do you keep warm in this place where it snows but there is no electricity How do you feed yourself where there are no grocery stores let alone restaurants Tsoeneng is a world apart from his home in America but Alder persists in adapting He learns to grow food he learns to speak the strange local language and he makes enough friends such that he is eventually invited to participate in initiation rites Yet even as he seems accepted into the Tsoeneng fold he sees how much of an outsider he will always remain and perhaps want to remain The Mountain School is insightful and candid at times accepting and at times rebellious It is the ultimate tale of the transplant Crocodile burning Michael Williams, 1998 Heroes of the Dark Continent James William Buel, 1889 The Awakening Aten Aidan K. Morrissey, 2019-05-21 The Awakening Aten envelops the reader in an Egypt of whispers and fears of webs within webs deceit upon deceit Its themes of murder intrigue political and religious conflict corruption tomb robbing war and executions are set against a background of fundamental ideological change Ancient Egypt is seen through the eyes of two families one royal the other commoner Yuya whose tomb is in the Valley of the Kings is a foreigner who rises from slavery to become Regent to an infant Pharaoh and thus the most powerful man in the world s wealthiest empire His children and descendants will remain at the very heart of the country s destiny Kha is a tomb painter and builder who experiences both the despair of imprisonment and the horror of war As Overseer of the King s Works he restores the Great Sphinx and inscribes the Dream Stela placed between its paws still visible today Through tragic and deathly events his family and that of
