Haunting in Chinese-Australian Writing Xiao Xiong, 2023-06-26 This book examines haunting in terms of trauma languaging and the supernatural in works by Chinese Australian writers born in Australia Mainland China Hong Kong Malaysia and Singapore It goes beyond the conventional focus on identity issues in the analysis of diasporic writing considering how the memory of past trauma is triggered by abusive systems of power in the present The author unpacks how trauma also brings past violence to haunt the present This book considers how different Chinese diasporic communities present a dynamic and multiple state through partial erasure between different Chinese subcultures and other cultures Showing the supernatural as a social and cultural product this book elucidates how haunting as the supernatural refers to the coexistence of and the competition between different cultures and powers It takes a wide ranging view of different diasporic communities under the banner Chinese a term that refers not only to Chinese nationals in terms of citizenship but also to the Chinese diaspora in terms of ancestry and Chinese culture more generally In analysing haunting in texts the author positions Chinese culture as in a constant state of flux It is relevant to literary scholars and students with interests in Australian literature Chinese and Southeast Asian migration writing and those with an interest in the Gothic and postcolonial traditions

Women, Subalterns, and Ecologies in South and Southeast Asian Women's Fiction Chitra Sankaran, 2021-11-01 In recent decades East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis as they affect these two regions have been overlooked Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women's relationships to human and nonhuman worlds Contemporary Women's Gothic Fiction Gina
