Dimensions Of Ethical Thought:

Dimensions of Ethical Thought Anthony E. Hartle, John Kekes, 1987 The book focuses on the nature of social and personal morality and on the relation between them Each of its five parts begins with an introduction to a specific moral problem presents a concrete case illustrating the problem and then turns to a classical and a contemporary reading aiming to resolve the problem

The Dimensions of Ethics Wilfrid J. Waluchow, 2003-03-27 The Dimensions of Ethics offers a concise but wide ranging introduction to moral philosophy In clear and engaging fashion the author first examines the scope of ethical theory and explores central metaethical questions such as the issue of relativism and the relationship between morality and religion He then turns to an exploration of five theoretical approaches utilitarianism the deontological approach of Kant the ethical pluralism of Ross virtue ethics and feminist ethics in each case providing a consideration of various objections that have been advanced as well as a sympathetic exposition of the core principles of each approach Throughout he uses a wide range of examples and integrates references to issues in applied ethics with his discussions of ethical theory

Types of Ethical Theory James Martineau, 1889

Early Greek Ethics David Wolfsdorf, 2020 Early Greek Ethics is the first volume devoted to philosophical ethics in its formative period It explores contributions from the Presocratics figures of the early Pythagorean tradition sophists and anonymous texts as well as topics influential to ethical philosophical thought such as Greek medicine music friendship and justice eLearning for Quality Teaching in Higher Education Nan Yang, 2020-04-20 This book explores the impact of eLearning on the quality of teaching in higher education focusing on three main issues university teachers perception of quality teaching their strategies for achieving quality teaching in practice and interventions that design and implement online collaborative activities in a large class The book argues that if eLearning targets the real problems in practice and is appropriately designed and implemented it can improve the teaching quality at universities It also demonstrates the complexity of teachers perception of quality teaching and contextual factors that affect teaching practice and quality Further it explores university teachers perception of quality teaching in Italy the UK and China an aspect that is rarely addressed in the literature and reveals why the impact of ICTs on university teaching is not as great as in other fields by explaining the issues that threaten the quality of day to day teaching Lastly it confirms that traditional lecturing combined with online collaborative activities improves the quality of teaching compared to traditional lecturing alone As such this book is a necessary and important resource for the research community The Fourth Dimension Charles Howard Hinton,1906 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Moral Issues in Military Decision Making Anthony E. Hartle,1989 discussion of the basic justification for the role of the military in American society Book Cover Healthy Thoughts Reidar Krummradt Lie,2002 This book edited by a team of leading European bioethicists is in all respects an innovative publication As part of the core materials project of the European Ethics Network this book collects European perspectives on health care ethics reflecting both the rich philosophical tradition and the broad interdisciplinary network in the field of European health care ethics In the first part of the book on the physician patient relationship the authors present different views on the integration of patient autonomy in the relational structure of the medical profession Here the focus is on the reception of patient autonomy in the European context and on European alternatives for the radical understanding of patient autonomy In the second part of this book the contributions deal with the ethical problems of clinical research with patients and with the ethical values involved in human experimentation In the third part of the book the just organisation of the health care system and the consequent resource allocation are critically examined With their common European background the authors want to enrich and encourage the ongoing discussion on the physician patient relationship human experimentation and justice in health care from various perspectives and different points of departure Therefore this volume is suitable for the interested reader as well as for educational purposes Theory and Practice of Nursing Lynn Basford,Oliver Slevin,2003 This is a comprehensive guide to the theory and practice of nursing addressing the nursing theory and skills specific to clients and patients needs Each chapter has learning outcomes study activities and reflection to prompt readers to learn as they read Power and Principle in the Market Place Jacob Dahl Rendtorff,2016-04-08 In the global financial crisis the need to develop a new kind of economy with a closer relation between ethics and economics has become an important challenge to the international society This book contributes to this debate by investigating different aspects of global business ethics and corporate social responsibility which are becoming more and more important in the ongoing discussions on the relation between market institutions and democratic governments The different chapters of the book deal with fundamental philosophical issues of the ethics of the market economy including discussions of the role of the social sciences and economics in contributing to a sustainable economics and global responsibility in the twenty first century In this sense the book takes up the transnational debate on ethics and economics in order to contribute to a more balanced fair just and conscientious development in the world The book starts with a European perspective on these issues based on philosophical sociological and economic views from Europe These views are further developed in order to share thoughts of how to improve corporate social responsibility welfare and justice and the advancement of ethical principles in the international context It is argued that in the international community good corporate citizenship as social and environmental responsibility is realized through individual and organizational cosmopolitan responsibility for fostering the common good for humanity The chapters of the book were originally presented at a conference in Copenhagen organized together with the German Cultural Institute the Goethe Institute of Copenhagen Copenhagen Business School and Roskilde University Denmark
