Neff,2025-10-27 Kerala's Puvus and Pampum Tullal is a story about the lives of Kerala's Puvu ritual specialists and their days long ritual performance pampum tullal or the jumping dance of the serpent deities n gam or pmpu The ritual is commissioned by members of Kerala's landed communities to bring health and prosperity to their extended families Belonging to an ancient South Indian tradition the ritual is orchestrated by Puvu ritual specialists who hold the sole hereditary right to perform it This book is the first in Kerala to approach this ritual tradition from the viewpoints and agency of its Dalit formerly known as untouchable ritual specialists men and women and to examine Puvu ritual practice in the context of rapid and extensive social change The study sheds important light upon Puvu rituals lives and livelihoods within the broader contexts of changing class caste and kinship relations land tenure and ritual patronage labour migration and the decline of Nayar matrilineality and old landed families These wide ranging social trends indexed and acted out in ritual are the backdrop for understanding Puvu ritual practice from the 1980s and in terms of history point to multiple structures and hierarchies of practice and meaning The combination of the focused study of ritual performance and traditional ethnography allows readers to witness the ritual practices and lives of members of a small real world community rendered virtually absent from the historical record It's extraordinary to hear from Puvus in their own words and to witness their dedication to their sacred profession at a time when the world they knew was rapidly falling apart But thirty plus years later the story at least for now has a happy ending both Puvus and pampum tullal are thriving
