Dimensions Structures Et Text Beckett:

The Affects, Cognition, and Politics of Samuel Beckett's Postwar Drama and Fiction Cristina Ionica, 2020-01-21 The Affects Cognition and Politics of Samuel Beckett's Postwar Drama and Fiction Revolutionary and Evolutionary Paradoxes theorizes the revolutionary and evolutionary import of Beckett's works in a global context defined by increasingly ubiquitous and insidious mechanisms of capture exploitation and repression alongside unprecedented demands for high volume information processing and connectivity Part I shows that in generating consistent flows of solidarity based angry laughter Beckett's works sabotage coercive couplings of the subject to social machines by translating subordination and repression into processes rather than data of experience Through an examination of Beckett's attack on gender class related normative injunctions the book shows that Beckett's works can generate solidarity and action oriented affects in readers spectators regardless of their training in textual analysis Part II proposes that Beckett's works can weaken the cognitive dominance of constrictive frames in readers audiences so that toxic ideological formations such as the association of safety and comfort with simplicity and sameness are rejected and more complex cognitive operations are welcomed instead a process that bolsters the mind's ability to operate at ease with increasingly complex malleable extensible and inclusive frames as well as with increasing volumes of information

The Narcissistic Text Brian T. Fitch, 1982-12-15 Critics theologians philosophers and psychoanalysts have written several thousand books theses and articles about Camus fiction His first published novel L'Etranger had a unique impact on a whole generation of readers and is other fiction although not as well known has also been influential However Camus fiction so far has not been judged by contemporary critical methods and intertextuality or the study of the interrelationship between Camus own texts has not been examined The Narcissistic Text A Reading of Camus Fiction is the first book devoted to the whole of Camus fiction to adopt this approach Brian Fitch uses the critical tools elaborated in the writings of such French formalists as Barthes Ricardou and Todorov and draws upon the hermeneutic theory of literature developed by Gadamer and Ricoeur As a result the self generating word play or linguistic narcissism of Jonas and the textual narcissism of La Peste are seen to give way in L'Etranger to a situation where the hermeneutic circle is itself contained within the circularity of autorepresentation As for the narcissism of La Chute it concerns the reader himself since what the text provides is a model of the hermeneutic process Fitch thus demonstrates that Camus fiction occupies a significant place in modern literature This volume will be of particular interest to those involved in Camus studies or concerned with contemporary critical methodology and literary theory

How to Do Things with Fictions Joshua Landy, 2012-08-23 Why does Mark's Jesus speak in parables Why does Plato's Socrates make bad arguments Why are Beckett's novels so inscrutable And why don't stage magicians even pretend to summon spirits anymore In a series of captivating chapters on Mark Plato Beckett Mallarmé and Chaucer Joshua Landy not only answers these questions but explains why they are worth asking in the first place Witty and approachable How to Do Things with Fictions challenges the widespread assumption that literary texts must be informative or morally improving in order to be of any real benefit It reveals that authors are sometimes best thought of not as entertainers or as educators but as personal trainers of the brain putting their willing readers through exercises designed to fortify specific mental capacities from form giving to equanimity from reason to faith Delivering plenty of surprises along the way that moral readings of literature can be positively dangerous that the parables were deliberately designed to be misunderstood that Plato knowingly sets his main character up for a fall that metaphor is powerfully connected to religious faith that we can sustain our beliefs even when we suspect them to be illusions How to Do Things with Fictions convincingly shows that our best allies in the struggle for more rigorous thinking deeper faith richer experience and greater peace of mind may well be the imaginative writings sitting on our shelves

Joycean and Dantean celebrations this volume aims to investigate the fecund influence of Italian culture on Samuel Beckett's work with a specific focus on the twentieth century Located at the intersection of historical avant garde movements and a renewed interest in tradition Italian modernism reimagined Italy and its culture projecting it beyond the shadow of fascism Following in Joyce's footsteps Samuel Beckett soon became an attentive reader of Italian modernist authors These had a profound effect on his early work shaping his artistic identity The influence of his early readings found its way also into Beckett's postwar writing and most poignantly in his theatre The contributions in this collection rekindle the debate around Beckett as modernist author through the lenses of Italian culture This study will be of particular interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies Italian studies English studies and comparative literature Subject Catalog,

Fitch,1991 Subtitled Reference and its problematization in twentieth century French fiction A study of two types or levels of referentiality the world of the book and the world of the reader in the French novel between roughly 1930 and 1967 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Style in Beckett's Prose, Repetition and the Transformation of the Functions of Language Elisabeth Bregman Segrè,1975 Aesthetic and Philosophical Reflections on Mood Birgit Breidenbach,2020-04-19 This study explores the concept of Stimmung in literary and philosophical texts of the modern age Signifying both mood and attunement Stimmung speaks to the categories of affective experience and aesthetic design alike The study locates itself in the nexus between discourses on modernity existentialism and aesthetics and uncovers the pivotal role of Stimmung in 19th and 20th century European narrative fiction and continental philosophy The study first explores the philosophical and aesthetic origins and implications of Stimmung to then discuss its role in the narrative fiction of three key authors of modern literature Fyodor Dostoevsky Samuel Beckett and Thomas Bernhard These readings demonstrate a significant shift towards an aesthetic of affective intensity and immediacy in which the experience of the reading process takes centre stage as each author develops an aesthetic philosophy of Stimmung in their own right Through its focus on the concept of Stimmung the study thus unearths a fundamental link between existentialist concerns and narrative practice in modern literature Prospecting Wolfgang Iser, 1993-02 Reevaluating such time honored concepts as representation he sketches out a new play theory of the text that sees literature as an ongoing enactment of human possibilities The Intent of Undoing in Samuel Beckett's Dramatic Texts S.
