North Carolina Wills and Inventories Copied from Original and Recorded Wills and Inventories in the Office of the Secretary of State by J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State North Carolina. Secretary of State, 1912 North Carolina Wills and Inventories J. Bryan Grimes, 2013-07-01

These North Carolina wills and inventories were copied from original records of wills and inventories in the office of the secretary of state. The wills reflect the varied phrases of domestic life in the colony. The text of any will may include the will and death dates, the name of the deceased, names of family members, items bequeathed, names of beneficiaries, name of executrix, executor, names of witnesses, and type of burial requested. Presented in alphabetical order, the wills span the eighteenth century. Fewer inventories than wills are published, but enough of these fascinating records are given to throw a strong side light on economic conditions in the colony at the time the inventories were compiled. The estate inventories list all kinds of property such as livestock, furniture, books, cookware, flatware, glassware, linens, parcels of land, tools, slaves, clothes, appliances, etc. Presented in alphabetical order, the inventories are dated from the seventeenth to the eighteenth centuries. These wills and inventories will give readers an accurate illustration of industrial and social life in the colony of North Carolina and will furnish an invaluable source of information about North Carolina's history and economic conditions prior to the Revolution. Children's Books in Print R R

The best of short literary memoirs, essays, and reflections, many of which were written expressly for this collection. Also available: The late Judith Kitchen, editor of the perennially popular anthologies Short Takes and In Short and In Brief, was greatly influential in recognizing and establishing flash creative nonfiction as a form in its own right. In Brief Encounters, she and writer-editor Dinah Lenney expand this vibrant field with nearly eighty new selections, as these sharply focused pieces have come to be known, representing an impressive range of voices, perspectives, sensibilities, and forms. Brief Encounters features the work of the emerging and the established, including Stuart Dybek, Roxanne Gay, Eduardo Galeano, Leslie Jamison, and Julian Barnes, arranged by theme to explore the human condition in ways intimate, idiosyncratic, funny, sad, provocative, lyrical, unflinching. From the rant to the rave, the meditation to the polemic, the confession to the valediction, this collection of shorts, this celebration of true and vivid prose, will enlarge your world.
