Seeing Through Abstraction Anatoly Detwyler,2025-10-14 During the first half of the twentieth century China saw sweeping changes in the material conditions and practices of communication transforming the volume velocity variety veracity and value of information Encountering the new abstract matter of information a generation of Chinese writers faced a crisis of literary identity What made literature distinct from other informational genres such as newspaper columns financial figures and telegrams How was the emergent information order reshaping individual and social knowledge And where would literature stand within this new order This book examines how writers of the Republican era 1912 1949 came to recognize and respond to information Anatoly Detwyler investigates a wide range of literary and graphic experiments that engaged with different forms of information management including data visualization financial statistics and propaganda science These works he argues collectively attest to a new perceptibility of abstraction and its epistemological implications for apprehending reality Tracing this mode of perception across fiction poetry and woodcut art Seeing Through Abstraction offers a revisionist account of the development of modern Chinese literature and repositions it within the global history of the information age Chinese Literature James L. Claren,2002 Chinese literature one of the world s oldest and richest and consisting originally of poetry and later of drama and fiction may be divided into three major historical periods that roughly correspond to those of Western literary history the classical period from the 6th century BC to the 2nd century AD the medieval period from the third century to the late 12th century and the modern period from the 13th century to the present This book presents an overview of Chinese literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources accessed by subject author and title indexes A Guide to Chinese Literature Wilt L. Idema,Lloyd Haft,1997 Selected for Choice s list of Outstanding Academic Books for 1997 A comprehensive overview of China s 3 000 years of literary history from its beginnings to the present day After an introductory section discussing the concept of literature and other features of traditional Chinese society crucial to understanding its writings the second part is broken into five major time periods earliest times to 100 c e 100 1000 1000 1875 1875 1915 and 1915 to the present corresponding to changes in book production The development of the major literary genres is traced in each of these periods The reference section in the cloth edition includes an annotated bibliography of more than 120 pages the paper edition has a shorter bibliography and is intended for classroom use Configurations of the City in Modern Chinese Literature and Film Yingjin Zhang,1992 The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith,2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History

captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Chinese Literature in the Second Half of a Modern Century Bangyuan Qi,Dewei Wang,2000-09-22 an important contribution to the study of recent Chinese literature Choice This fine scholarly survey of Chinese literature since 1949 discusses such trends as modernism nativism realism root seeking and scar literature misty poets and political feminist and societal issues in modern Chinese literature Library Journal This volume is a survey of modern Chinese literature in the second half of the twentieth century It has three goals 1 to introduce figures works movements and debates that constitute the dynamics of Chinese literature from 1949 to the end of the century 2 to depict the enunciative endeavors ranging from ideological treatises to avant garde experiments that inform the polyphonic discourse of Chinese cultural politics 3 to observe the historical factors that enacted the interplay of literary post modernities across the Chinese communities in the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas

Fictional Authors, Imaginary Audiences Bonnie S. McDougall,2003 While modern Chinese fiction does not necessarily constitute a reliable portrait of Chinese life it can reveal fascinating insights into Chinese writers and their audiences This book examines poetry drama film and the visual arts revealing their political and social context Surveying the major trends in fiction at the end of the century the book shows how some writers reinvented themselves as hooligans or pop stars while others reaffirmed their old alliance with the remnants of the cultural establishment

Ding Ling and Her Mother Dora Shu-fang Dien,2001 Ding Ling Her Mother A Cultural Psychological Study Journal of Chinese Studies ,1985

Chinese Revolution and Chinese Literature Dongfeng Tao,2009 This volume has brought together essays to explore analyse and interpret the revolutionary tradition in modern Chinese literature over the past century from various angles The authors examines the bodily or carnal dimension especially the hidden implication of sexual passion in revolutionary literature formulate feminist critiques of the conception of women in literary expressions of revolution explore the function of revolution as historical discourse and in historiographical representation and discuss the reworking of oerevolutionary classics in recent literary and artistic endeavours Here revolution in history and in literature is conceptualized neither as an unquestionably progressive and creative force for a new world nor an absolutely pejorative concept that necessarily leads to sociopolitical turmoil and tragedy Insofar as oepostrevolutionary writings cannot but reappropriate the revolutionary spirit as their unavoidable and inseparable traumatic kernel studies in revolutionary literature and culture too go through the zigzag experience of revolution in order to scrutinize its complex implications
