Funding Virtue Marina Ottaway, 2000 The United States and many other international donors have embraced civil society aid as a key tool of democracy promotion This collection of essays analyzes civil society aid in five regions South Africa the Philippines Peru Egypt and Romania focusing on crucial issues and dilemmas The Virtuous Spiral Alan

Fowler, 2013-11-05 The Virtuous Spiral is without doubt a most welcome addition to the body of knowledge that will continue to be highly valued in the NGO sector Ezra Limiri Mbogori Director Mwelekeo wa NGO MWENGO Harare Fowler demonstrates how development NGOs can engage in a virtuous spiral of performance based learning that regenerates public trust This is a timely book dealing squarely with the confidence crisis faced by many NGOs in the South and North Louk De La Rive Box Director European Centre for Development Policy Management Maastricht Sustainability is crucial for all institutions involved in international development This work offers practical guidance on how to achieve it There are three main kinds of sustainability and a section of the book is devoted to each making the impact of the organization s work sustainable ensuring continuity of funding and making the organization itself sustainable to remain viable Achieving all three creates a virtuous spiral The book takes an organizational rather than a technical or impact based approach to sustainability It is based on extensive international research and offers many practical examples of sustainability and the difficult trade offs involved NGO Management Alan Fowler, Chiku Malunga, 2020-09-23 The task environment of NGOs is changing rapidly and significantly making new demands on their management and leadership This Companion discusses the complexities involved It illustrates how NGOs can maintain performance and remain agile amidst increasing uncertainties These factors include the position of NGOs in civil society their involvement in governance and coping with the effects of the securitisation of international aid Complementing The Earthscan Reader in NGO Management selected contributions and specially commissioned pieces from NGO thought leaders and practitioners provide the reader with insights on the emerging thinking competences and practices needed for success in managing and leading tomorrow s NGOs Autonomy Or Dependence?

Vicky Mancuso Brehm, 2004 Autonomy or Dependence explores the concept and practice of partnership between non government organisations NGOs in the North and South Based on a rigorous four year study the book draws together the perspectives of a group of European NGOs and compares these with the experiences of a selection of their partners in Brazil Cambodia and Tanzania The authors look ahead to how partnerships are changing as networks and alliances of Northern and Southern civil society organisations join together to work on common issues Making Strategic Plans Work Chiku

Watchman Malunga, 2009 Making Strategic Plans Work introduces an innovative and creative approach to understanding the theory and practice of strategic planning Based on proverbs and folktales the book provides detailed analyses of the stages of the strategic planning process preparation formulation implementation monitoring and evaluation It also discusses the roles and responsibilities of the key players in the process boards management donors consultants and communities and how to build their capacity for more effectiveness. It equally provides at each stage templates for assessing the effectiveness of the strategic planning process as well as the key players. The book is unique in that it uses the wisdom contained in African proverbs and folktales to discuss the stages of the strategic planning process and roles and responsibilities of players in the process. Being metaphors, proverbs and folktales often bring out more lucidly the meanings embodied in the normally arcane language of strategic planning. Proverbs and folktales also create strong mental pictures which are often very effective in impressing ideas upon people's minds, communicating them at a deeper level and motivating them to action. The book is based on research-tested use of the proverbs and folktales in strategic planning practice in different contexts in combination with the author's experience as a professional organization development (OD) consultant. It will be especially useful to students, teachers, executives, board members and all players in international development, community development, organizational development, international businesses and African Studies. Volunteers and expatriates working in Africa and other developing regions will equally find the book useful as it provides insight into the culture and mode of thinking of the people they work with.

Fresh Perspectives: MGI Custom Publication: Business Management, 2009 Deepening Democracy Francis Adams, 2003. Adams surveys the impact of transnational organizations (NGOs) on Latin American politics since 1990. Cross Border Links Rachel Hays, 1998. Development and Management Tina Wallace, 2000. Development is not merely a question of project-based interventions or of quantifiable inputs and outputs but rather is a complex process of negotiation over meanings, values and social goals within the sphere of public action. This collection includes in-depth accounts by academics and development managers that range from civil society organizations in Brazil to NGO workers in Egypt, government departments in Tanzania and Poland, donor agencies in Bangladesh and black feminist activists in the United Kingdom. Civil Society, NGOs and Social Development Alan Fowler, United Nations Research Institute for Social Development, 2000. This paper broadly evaluates the role and performance of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in promoting social development before and since the 1995 World Summit for Social Development. Two kinds of analysis and recommendations are offered Firstly it concerns the practices of NGOs and their relationships with other partners in development Secondly it touches on the deep rooted pathologies of the aid system that condition the form and effectiveness of the NGOs and the development entities In conclusion the report points out in the absence of thorough reforms The aid system will continue to hinder mobilization by the larger civil society with NGOs to about genuine development in the Third World Adapted from the summary      Staying Afloat Arielle Sarah Levine,2006      G.K. Hall Bibliographic Guide to Latin American Studies Benson Latin American Collection,1999      Foreign Direct Investment in Sub-Saharan Africa Laurence Cockcroft,Roger Riddell,1991 Foreign investment is even less likely to meet Sub Saharan Africa s rising foreign exchange and savings gaps in the 1990s than in the dismal 1980s Investors interested in Sub Saharan Africa are more likely to commit technology and management than equity capital Economic activity and overall economic policy may be more effective at raising the total volume of investment than special fiscal and other incentives      Cross Border Links ,1998

The Real World of NGOs Thea Hilhorst,2003-05 Dorothea Hilhorst provides for the first time an empirically rooted and theoretically innovative understanding of the actual internal workings organizational practices and discursive repertoires of NGOs Her evidence and insights lead to a different picture of NGOs from the one prevailing in the literature Her model of NGOs not as clear cut organizations but often with several different faces fragmented and consisting of social networks whose organizing practices remain in flux is helpful to understanding not just these bodies but official development agencies too      The South African Quarterly ,1921
