

Literary direction

- Literary direction appears when the writers achieve the definite level of creative consciousness and together form some common principals of their creativity in a program, commenting them through the theory and recreating them through practice in their literary works. Literary direction may be also seen as definite historical manifestation of the artistic method inside of artistic system. The belonging of writher to one or another literary method suggests the common cultural -aesthetical traditions, sameness of worldviews, unity of social and cultural – historical situation of creative activity (the regularities of common historical development).
