Disabled Child In The Library:

The Disabled Child in the Library Linda Lucas Walling, Marilyn H. Karrenbrock Stauffer, 1983 A practical and theoretical discussion on ways the library can meet the needs of the disabled child Including Families of Children with Special Needs Carrie Scott Banks, Sandra Feinberg, Barbara A. Jordan, Kathleen Deerr, Michelle Langa, 2014 More than 6 5 million children in the US receive special education services in any given community approximately one child out of every six will get speech therapy go to counseling attend classes exclusively with other children with disabilities or receive some other service that allows him or her to learn This new revised edition is a step by step guide to serving children and youth with disabilities as well as the family members caregivers and other people involved in their lives The authors show how staff can enable full use of the library s resources by integrating the methods of educators medical and psychological therapists social workers librarians parents and other caregivers Widening the scope to address the needs of teens as well as preschool and school age children this edition also discusses the needs of Spanish speaking children with disabilities and their families looking at cultural competency as well as Spanish language resources Enhanced with checklists stories based on real experiences descriptions of model programs and resources and an overview of appropriate internet sites and services this how to gives thorough consideration to Partnering and collaborating with parents and other professionals Developing special collections and resources Assessing competencies and skills Principles underlying family centered services and resource based practices The interrelationship of early intervention special education and library service This manual will prove valuable not only to children s services librarians outreach librarians and library administrators but also early intervention and family support professionals early childhood and special educators childcare workers daycare and after school program providers and policymakers Library Services to Developmentally Disabled Children and Adults Linda Lucas, Association of Specialized and Cooperative Library Agencies, 1982 Disabilities, Children, and Libraries Linda Lucas Walling, 1993 Offers practical advice for librarians and school library media specialists to help them serve the needs of children with disabilities Disabilities and the Library Clayton A. Copeland, 2022-11-11 Librarians need to understand the needs and abilities of differently abled patrons and anyone responsible for hiring and managing librarians must know how to provide an equitable environment This book serves as an educational resource for both groups Understanding the needs and abilities of patrons who are differently abled increases librarians ability to serve them from childhood through adulthood While some librarians are fortunate to have had coursework to help them understand the needs and abilities of the differently abled many have had little experience working with this diverse group In addition many persons who are differently abled are or would like to become librarians Disabilities and the Library helps readers understand the challenges faced by people who are differently abled both as patrons and as information professionals Readers will learn to assess their library s physical facilities programming staff and continuing education to ensure that their libraries are prepared to include people of all abilities Inclusive programming and collection development suggestions will help librarians to meet the needs of patrons and colleagues with mobility and dexterity problems learning differences hearing and vision limitations sensory and cognitive challenges autism and more Additional information is included about assistive and adaptive technologies and web accessibility Librarians will value this accessible and important book as they strive for equity and inclusivity
