He encourages Christians and ministry leaders to think critically about disciple making and to commit to Jesus' Great Commission. Michael makes the convincing argument that our willingness to engage in personal disciple making will deepen our own walks with Jesus and create a movement within our churches, communities, and countries that will impact generations for the sake of Christ.

Making Disciples Ralph Moore, 2012-12-21. The Great Commission is to make disciples. Renowned church planter and pastor Ralph Moore shows leaders why a focus on making disciples is the essential next step once a church is planted. This biblical practical handbook will guide churches of any size to focus their ministries around Jesus' command to his followers to make disciples of all nations. Making Disciples offers a model of church ministry that sees every member as a minister, and it will become an indispensable resource for equipping a new generation of disciple makers.

Conversion and Discipleship Bill Hull, 2016-01-12. Discipleship occurs when someone answers the call to learn from Jesus how to live his or her life as though Jesus were living it. The end result is that the disciple becomes the kind of person who naturally does what Jesus did. How the church understands salvation and the gospel is the key to recovering a biblical theology of discipleship. Our doctrines of grace and salvation in some cases actually prevent us from creating an expectation that we are to be disciples of Jesus. A person can profess to be a Christian and yet still live under the impression that they don't need to actually follow Jesus. Being a follower is seen as an optional add-on, not a requirement. It is a choice, not a demand. Being a Christian today has no connection with the biblical idea that we are formed into the image of Christ. In this ground-breaking new book, pastor and author Bill Hull shows why our existing models of evangelism and discipleship fail to actually produce followers of Jesus. He looks at the importance of recovering a robust view of the gospel and taking seriously the connection between conversion, answering the call to follow Jesus, and discipleship: living like the one we claim to follow.

DiscipleShift Jim Putman, Bobby Harrington, 2013-04-23. Question: What is the God-given purpose of the local church? Answer: Relational discipleship. DiscipleShift walks you through five key shifts that churches must make to refocus on the fundamental biblical mission of discipleship. These intentional changes will attract the world and empower your church members to be salt and light in their communities. Over the last thirty years, many influential church leaders and church planters in America have adopted various models for reaching unchurched people. While many of these approaches have merit, something is still missing—something even more fundamental to the mission of the church: discipleship. Making disciples, helping people to trust and follow Jesus, is the church's God-given mandate. Devoted disciples attract people outside the church because of the change others see in their Christ-like lives. And discipleship empowers Christians to be more like Christ as they intentionally develop relationships with non-believers. Through biblical and professional insights, Jim Putman and Bobby Harrington discuss the transformational effectiveness of making disciples and just how to do so in practical terms. You'll learn: The specific roles of a disciple-making pastor; The components of person-to-person discipleship; How each ministry in your church leads to discipleship; How to implement discipleship in your church Disciple making leaders will not produce perfect churches but they will create effective churches

Book cover Disciple-Making Disciples Christopher Moody, 2021-12-04. Personal Disciple Making is the model Jesus used to build His Church, yet it has become a dying art form in the modern day North American church.

Disciple Making Is . . . Dave Earley, Rod Dempsey, 2013-08. Dozens of brief yet powerful chapters about what it really means to live out the Great Commission in practical terms, written by two men with more than sixty years of combined discipleship experience.

What Is a Disciple and How Do You Make One? Mark Swiger, 2015-09. In many ways, the church has become more adept at adding members than preparing true Christian disciples. Author and evangelist Mark Swiger believes that bringing souls to Christ and then nurturing them to Christ-like maturity requires an approach that is different from the methods often employed today. Many congregations do not have a clear plan in place for seeing every believer grow to fruitfulness and spiritual maturity. Adding to this problem, sometimes pastors struggle with knowing how to equip others for the work of the ministry. Swiger has developed a Spirit-led manual for disciples and those who lead them. Part I of his book is for everyone, since every believer is first and foremost a disciple of Jesus. Part II speaks to the particular needs of pastors and leaders who are charged with discipling others. This interactive, biblically based handbook is designed to help the church rediscover the eternal disciple-making truths and examples found in the Scriptures. God's Word still has the power to transform ordinary believers into disciples who can turn the world upside down.

Intentional Brandon Guindon, 2023-09-12. Rediscover the intentional disciple-making methods of Jesus Christ. Today, churches and their leaders relentlessly pursue innovation of the next new idea that will somehow capture the attention of the spiritually lost. Yet very few Christians know how to walk out a day-to-day lifestyle of intentional disciple making. Drawing from decades of experience making disciples, pastor Brandon Guindon will show you how Jesus called to go and make disciples. Can become more than just a vague church slogan when we relearn the discipleship methods that Jesus modeled for us. Intentional introduces eight principles of disciple making, exposing their gospel roots and practical nature. Principles such as listening with the genuine intent to understand different voices and experiences, looking for and developing the potential in others, knowing when to firmly speak the truth and when to allow yourself to be interrupted, living a lifestyle of discipleship yourself. Jesus Christ intentionally disciplined twelve people every day for three and a half years and then commanded us to go and make disciples as well. And he empowered us by sending us the indwelling Holy Spirit to guide us. The early church thrived and expanded by imitating the intentional relational methods Jesus modeled. Yet somewhere along the way, we lost sight of the simple truth that Jesus' methods of disciple making are as holy as his message. It's time to relearn those methods.

examine the obstacles in our lives that prevent us from imitating the ancient ways of Christ and approach all our relationships differently making disciples in Jesus name and growing spiritually in the process Transforming Discipleship Greg Ogden, 2016-10-02 Greg Ogden recovers Jesus method of accomplishing life change by investing in just a few people at a time In this revised and updated edition Ogden sets forth his vision for transforming both the individual disciple and discipleship itself showing how discipleship can become a self replicating process with ongoing impact from generation to generation
