

I love you just the way you are and there's nothing I want to change about you because you are amazing just the way you are, my love. Can you please stay exactly as you are? Every day, I bless God for bringing you into my life. You loved me when no one else could. I can never repay you enough for all your care and love. I vow to always cherish and love you till the end of time. I love you to the moon and back, sweetheart.

The Whole Works of Robert Leighton ... Robert Leighton, James Aikman, 1832 The works of Robert Leighton Robert Leighton (abp. of Glasgow.), 1859 But I Love Him Jim Martyka, 2019-01-15

As her weak and battered body lay paralyzed on the mattress in her master bedroom Michelle's boyfriend's blood dripped from the lacerations on his hands onto her bruised and mangled face. Using what little energy she had left she broke free from his grasp and fell to her knees begging God to forgive Paul for what he was doing and to make him stop. Paul simply laughed and replied God isn't going to help you now. In that instant Michelle saw her life flash before her eyes and wondered how she got there again. But I Love Him is a painful yet inspirational true story of a strong independent woman caught in the horrifying cycle of domestic violence and how she got out. In this book Michelle shares the details of her struggle with genuine honesty taking the reader on a twisted journey of love pain and unyielding brutality that eventually leads to peace. Mixing statistics research and resource with her own account she shows just how far someone in her situation can sink why it happens and how they can always pick themselves back up. Those who hear Michelle's story will walk away with a newfound understanding about the horrors of domestic violence how to escape and how to build a new healthier life. Michelle Jewsbury is an international philanthropic speaker and author that has traveled the world as an advocate for the less fortunate. May 2014 she took her first humanitarian trip to Guatemala where she helped an orphanage on the Rio Dulce. Michelle left her position with Young Vision Africa in August 2016 to focus her efforts on ending domestic violence.
