Butoh Shades Of Darkness 1st Edition:

The Routledge Companion to Butoh Performance Bruce Baird, Rosemary Candelario, 2018-09-03 The Routledge Companion to Butoh Performance provides a comprehensive introduction to and analysis of the global art form butoh. Originating in Japan in the 1960s butoh was a major innovation in twentieth century dance and performance and it continues to shape shift around the world. Taking inspiration from the Japanese avant garde Surrealism Happenings and authors such as Genet and Artaud its influence can be seen throughout contemporary performing arts music and visual art practices. This Companion places the form in historical context documents its development in Japan and its spread around the world and brings together the theory and the practice of this compelling dance. The interdisciplinarity evident in the volume reflects the depth and the breadth of butoh and the editors bring specially commissioned essays by leading scholars and dancers together with translations of important early texts. The Greatest Shows on Earth Professor of Psychology John Freeman, 2011-11-01 What makes a particular performance great? The Greatest Shows on Earth offers an address that focuses sharply on theatre as performance as an event that can stir the blood the spirit and the brain like nothing else. The result is a book about fourteen outstanding theatre events from a dozen countries. In discrete production focused chapters work from Peter Brook's King Lear through to the Sydney Olympics Opening Event is approached by a team of international scholars and practitioners each describing in print that which existed in time and space and most significantly within specific contexts. What binds these chapters together is the conviction that whilst liveness disappears in a moment spectatorship can translate into documentation that adds something to a work's value even as so much else can never be captured in words. In wrestling with ephemerality and memory The Greatest Shows on Earth does more than make a case for what makes certain theatre great it foregrounds analysis with emotion and writing with the type of first person engagement that is usually edited out rather than invited in. John Freeman lectures in Performance Studies at Curtin University Perth Western Australia. He has written extensively on theatre art pedagogy and research for numerous international journals newspapers magazines books government and funding agencies galleries festivals and consultancy panels. The Greatest Shows on Earth is his fifth book. From Africa to Zen Robert Solomon, Kathleen M. Higgins, 2003-01-01 In the second edition of this groundbreaking text in non-Western philosophy fifteen experts introduce some of the great philosophical traditions in the world. The dozen essays collected here unveil exciting sophisticated philosophical traditions that are too often neglected in the western world. The contributors include the leading scholars in their fields but they write for students coming to these concepts for the first time. Building on revisions and updates to the original essays on China India Japan and the Americas this new edition also considers three philosophical traditions for the first time: Jewish Buddhist and South Pacific Mōori philosophy. □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□, □□□□□□□□□□□□.
