Butterflies Talking With Children About Death And Life Eternal:

Butterflies P. William VanderWyden,1991 Loss, Change and Grief Erica Brown,2012-11-12 First Published in 1999 Helping children come to terms with and be aware of loss change and grief is an undeveloped area within education although they are universal features of human experience Here the author fosters a positive attitude to teaching and learning about such issues She explores many experiences of loss and grief and different beliefs and practices are discussed so that the reader can gain a better understanding of how children grieve She also provides suggestions for ways in which this topic can be taught within the school curriculum and offers practical suggestions for effective professional collaboration Why We Love Them So Paul A. Keenan,2009-08 When a beloved pet dies the grief that often follows can be overwhelming Why We Love Them So Surviving the Loss of an Animal Friend offers profound guidance on how to understand deep sorrow and eventually use its power to transform our lives Father Paul Keenan faced his own grief journey when Teddy his twenty five year old cat passed away Knowing the love he felt for Teddy was irreplaceable Father Paul turned within and listened to his soul sharing the valuable lessons he learned as a result Along with providing a series of short reflections on various aspects of grieving Father Paul moves those mourning the loss of an animal companion through the seven stages of grief that comprise such profound emotions as Feeling alone after death Dealing with Why me Learning to receive and offer compassion Realizing an overall purpose Sorting through past life experiences Returning to daily life Committing to a new level of aliveness and reality Father Paul s gentle advice and guidance will inspire uplift and connect readers with their capacity to live purposeful meaningful lives after the loss of their much adored animal companions All proceeds from this book go to The Perseus Foundation a 501 c 3 founded in 1999 which funds cancer research to benefit our canine and feline friends Butterflies P. William VanderWyden,1991 Parenting a Grieving Child (Revised) Mary DeTurris Poust,2015-08-01 Whether it s a fish a friend or a family member nearly every child will experience a loss in their early years and the experience and feelings of a sad event can be confusing and scary And when grief intrudes children look to their parents and the adults in their lives to fix this pain take away what they don t understand and show them how to handle their emotions Parenting a Grieving Child provides practical and approachable resources for Catholic parents and other adult helpers who work with children to use the power and traditions of the Catholic faith to accompany children as they work through their grief in a healthy way As author Mary DeTurris Poust points out too often children are left out of the grieving process and their specific grief issues are not addressed or are addressed in harmful ways Children s grief is real and powerful and it needs to be acknowledged and validated by the adults who are accompanying them through the grieving process Drawing from the traditions and practices of the Catholic faith Parenting a Grieving Child provides the steps parents can take to help their child through one of life s most difficult experiences Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 On the Wings of a Butterfly Marilyn J. Maple,1992 This is the gentle honest story of Lisa a child dying of cancer who finds comfort and support in her friendship with a caterpillar preparing for transformation into a monarch butterfly On the Wings of a Butterfly Shirley J.
