The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: I-N Hans A. Ostrom, J. David Macey, 2005. Designed to meet the needs of high school students, undergraduates, and general readers, this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present. Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers. This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics. While most of the entries are on individual authors, the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social, political, and aesthetic movements in which they have participated. Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing. Publisher: Sea Dreams. Meriam Wilhelm, Once renowned for his artistic abilities, painter Thor Hudson has become a washed up shell of himself. Hiding out in a self-imposed retirement, Hudson is incapable of finger painting, let alone recreating even one of his famous sea murals. When the artist's publicist prematurely announces Hudson's long-awaited return to the art world, Hudson is faced with failing publicly or accepting help from a beautiful lavender-eyed witch, a few enchanted cupcakes, and a touch of magic. New Moon Beach is the perfect place for Thor Hudson to rediscover himself, do a bit of wave walking, and maybe even fall in love with his favorite sea witch. African American Literature Alma Dawson Ph.D., Connie Van Fleet, 2004-12-30. Will guide readers to works central to the compelling African American experience that match specific reading interests.
