Working the Field Jacques Henry, Sara Le Menestrel, 2009 Working the Field Accounts from French Louisiana records reflections on the fieldwork conducted in French Louisiana by a group of anthropologists and folklorists from Louisiana the United States Canada and France between the 1970s and 2000 Contributors cast a critical look at the core anthropological concepts of field informants and knowledge. Reassessing they propose that the field identities and knowledge acquired are not set entities but rather are a matter of construction. Personal profiles of the researchers native or outsider activist or academic man or woman black or white contribute to frame the investigations. Essays also illustrate the shifting of these identities during and after the research in response to personal relational and political circumstances. This volume is a vital addition to the body of work on French Louisiana and Cajun and Creole Culture and it provides an understanding of the true nature of anthropological fieldwork that is of great value to anyone attempting to research in a modern setting. American Folklore Studies Simon J.
