By Faith Alone:

Faith Alone R. C. Sproul, 1999-02-01 A leading theologian explains the biblical doctrine of justification by faith alone and urges fellow evangelicals to embrace this classic Protestant teaching

By Faith Alone Gary L. W. Johnson, Guy Prentiss Waters, 2007-03-06 The Reformation swept across Europe with a God glorifying gospel of grace Now the doctrine of grace cherished and proclaimed by the Reformers is under renewed assault from an unexpected place the evangelical church itself With the help of several theologians Gary L W Johnson and Guy P Waters trace the background and development of two seemingly disparate movements that have surfaced within the contemporary church the New Perspective s on Paul and the Federal Vision and how they corrupt the truth of salvation by faith alone By regaining a focus on the doctrine of grace pastors seminarians and future leaders can regain the cohesion coherence and direction to truly build the church to withstand the attacks of false and empty doctrines

Faith Alone---The Doctrine of Justification Thomas R. Schreiner, 2015-09-15 Renowned biblical scholar Thomas Schreiner looks at the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine of justification and offers an updated defense of this pillar of Reformed theology Reinvigorating one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola fide Schreiner Summarizes the history of the doctrine looking at the early church and the writings of several of the Reformers Walks readers through an examination of the key biblical texts in the Old and New Testament that support the Reformed understanding of justification Discusses whether justification is transformative or forensic and introduces readers to some of the contemporary challenges to the Reformation teaching of sola fide with particular attention to the new perspective on Paul Five hundred years after the Reformation the doctrine of justification by faith alone still needs to be understood and proclaimed In Faith Alone you will learn how the rallying cry of sola fide is rooted in the Scriptures and how to understand this doctrine in a fresh way

THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God s glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches

Justification by Faith Alone John Eedes, 2014-03-02 Being concerned with the state of theology in his day surrounding justification being sorely abused Eedes took great pains to write carefully and almost exhaustively about the biblical doctrine of justification by faith alone He takes to task Mr Erye Mr Woodbridge and Mr Baxter on their deviant writings concerning the doctrine and thoughtfully sets down the Bible s teaching in accordance with orthodox Christianity Eedes shows that justification by faith alone is not a physical act but a judicial act Justification is not by inherent righteousness but God as judge in the court of mercy by judicial declaration remits sin to the believer through Christ's merits and absolves the sinner repenting and believing. He masterfully refutes Antinomianism, Arminianism, Roman Catholicism, and the new divinity of Richard Baxter on this point of doctrine. His aim is to press Christians not to be confounded on this foundational point of theology but to embrace the truth and follow it in order to attain salvation found only through the merits of Jesus Christ. There is no doubt that this is one of the best treatments of justification by faith alone in print from any age in church history. Its usefulness today is without question, knowing that so many professing Christians have no idea how to define or explain this crucial doctrine. Here Mr. Eedes will be of the utmost help. This is not a scan or facsimile; it has been updated in modern English for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions. Justified by Faith Alone

R. C. Sproul, 2010. This compact book outlines the controversies and implications of the central debate of the Reformation: justification by faith alone. Luther said that the doctrine of justification by faith alone is the article upon which the church stands or falls. R. C. Sproul follows Luther's lead in his concise and compelling work, now repackaged and republished. Justified by Faith Alone surveys the main tenets of the doctrine of justification in Roman Catholicism and evangelicalism. Sproul is careful to accurately represent Catholic beliefs and observes that while both traditions agree that fa

Justification by Faith Alone John MacArthur, John Gertsner, Don Kistler, 2003. This is one of our all-time bestselling books, over 12,000 copies sold thus far. As some stray from the long-held Reformation view and understanding of justification by faith alone, we felt it necessary to add a new chapter by Don Kistler. His chapter shows that any addition to what Christ has done becomes total subtraction in this vital area. Justification by Faith Alone Jonathan Edwards, 2014-04-08. This work is the substance of two of Edwards' earliest printed lectures in 1738. Edwards was endeavoring to respond to encroaching Arminianism in his Northampton congregation as well as an abiding antinomianism in the colonies since the days of Anne Hutchinson. This classic book demonstrates Edwards' lucid reasoning and solid Reformed and Biblical approach to the crucial issue of salvation. Edwards follows Scripture, showing that Christ is the center of the Gospel and the doctrine of justification the centerpiece of evangelism. Edwards covers the intricacies of how believers are made righteous only through Christ's merits and that this justifying righteousness is equally imputed to all elect believers. This is accomplished by the condition of faith as an instrument. He demonstrates clearly the unscriptural nature of Arminianism and Antinomianism, both being destructive to the true Gospel of Christ. Edwards says Christians should strive after an increase of knowledge, and no one should content themselves without some clear and distinct understanding in this point. But we should believe in the general, according to the clear and abundant revelations of God's word, that it is none of our own excellency, virtue, or righteousness that is the ground of our being received from a state of condemnation into a state of acceptance in God's sight, but only Jesus Christ and his righteousness and worthiness received by faith. This, I think, to be of great importance. This is not a scan or facsimile; it has been updated in modern English for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions.

Faith Alone in One Hundred Verses Robert N. Wilkin, 2020-09 The doctrine of salvation by faith apart from works sola fide is often defended using a handful of familiar verses such as John 3:16, Ephesians 2:8-9 and Galatians 2:16. But are there any more? How prevalent in Scripture is the doctrine of faith alone? Would you believe there are as many as 100 verses that declare believing to be the one and only condition of eternal salvation? That is what Robert N. Wilkin argues in Faith Alone in 100 Verses. Writing in a devotional style, Wilkin shows that the doctrine of salvation by faith apart from works is taught explicitly or implicitly in at least one hundred passages throughout the New Testament. Whether you are uncertain about how to be saved or want to gain a better understanding of the Biblical evidence about the free gift of eternal life, this book will help remove any confusion about the wonderful grace of God in salvation.

Faith Alone Martin Luther, Zondervan, 2005 Freshly translated from the original German into today's English, this book contains a treasury of devotionals taken from Luther's writings and sermons, 1513 to 1546, conveniently divided into daily readings to point readers to the Bible and a deeper understanding of faith.

Salvation by Grace Through Faith Alone Don Wenzel, 2012-10-23 This book is written for today's church. However, it is not written to impugn anyone's belief. Rather, the purpose is to redirect the sole honor, glory, and credit for anyone's salvation toward the Triune God and away from any human initiative or action. To take credit for any part of salvation regardless of the amount is to take away from the effectiveness of the workings of the Holy Spirit, Christ's sacrifice, and the Father's divine will.

No Other Gospel Josh Moody, 2011-01-05 As fallen human beings, we are quick to deviate from the true gospel. For as Pastor Josh Moody writes, we tend toward human gospels. Believers must constantly battle to maintain the purity and simplicity of the gospel. Paul was acutely aware of this as he wrote his letter to the Galatians. He was writing to an established church of experienced believers who had started to slip in their gospel witness. Moody finds in Galatians particular relevance and parallels to many churches today. Stemming from a series of sermons delivered to his church, he examines thirty-one reasons Paul gives for this gospel. Moody writes this book with a pastor's heart, addressing important topics such as The Gospel Not Moralism and The Use of Gospel Freedom. Paul's message is foundational to the Christian faith, and thoughtful readers will benefit from Moody's exposition.

The Faith That Saves Fred Chay, John P. Correia, 2012-08-21 There is no more important issue in theological study than the meaning of faith in the New Testament. The perennial problem of the misunderstanding concerning the nature of faith has produced a variety of theological errors as well as pastoral problems for the church. In a day of rampant theological confusion concerning justification by faith, the nature of faith is paramount. This book provides a penetrating examination through exegetical precision concerning the nature of faith. For those who believe in faith alone in Christ alone, this book will guide you into an understanding of what faith is and what it is not. This is a book that needed to be written and a book that must be read.

Earl Radmacher, ThD, President Emeritus, Western Seminary. Most evangelical Protestants agree that salvation is by faith alone in Christ alone. However, what they cannot agree on is the meaning of faith. Are there different kinds of faith in the Bible? Is there saving faith?

and non saving faith Is faith a matter of the mind or the emotions or the mind emotions and will Is faith active or passive on the part of the believer Is it a gift of God or a work of man All these questions and many more are explored in depth by Chay and Correia They have done a commendable job of dealing with words studies grammatical nuances and debated passages Such a work is long overdue Dave Anderson PhD President and professor of Theology Grace School of Theology President Free Grace Alliance

Bates, 2017-03-14 Jesus Creed 2017 Book of the Year One of the Best Books of 2017 Englewood Review of Books We are saved by faith when we trust that Jesus died for our sins This is the gospel or so we are taught But what is faith And does this accurately summarize the gospel Because faith is frequently misunderstood and the climax of the gospel misidentified the gospel's full power remains untapped While offering a fresh proposal for what faith means within a biblical theology of salvation Matthew Bates presses the church toward a new precision we are saved solely by allegiance to Jesus the king Instead of faith alone Christians must speak about salvation by allegiance alone The book includes discussion questions for students pastors and church groups and a foreword by Scot McKnight
