By Love Alone Daily Readings With St Therese Of Lisieux Enfolded In Love Series:

By Love Alone Saint Thérèse (de Lisieux), Michael Hollings, 2000 Thérèse of Lisieux is among today's most popular and best loved saints. Yet she entered a Carmelite convent when she was fifteen and died when she was only twenty-four. How did she come to be so widely known and loved? The answer lies in her writings. She left an autobiography The Story of a Soul and a collection of letter poems and counsels. These give a picture of a unique spirituality, the little way of love. Thérèse set out to teach trust and absolute self-surrender and showed how holiness lies within reach of us all. New readers will be surprised by her refreshing absence of piousness and a spiritual honesty that speaks to us today. Michael Hollings has selected passages which show the essence of Thérèse and which can be used day by day to help the reader develop his or her relationship with the God of love. This book is part of the acclaimed Enfolded in Love series of books which presents selections from the spiritual classics in a form suitable for daily reading and meditation.

By Love Alone Therese of Therese of Lisieux, Michael Hollings, 2019-06-27 By Love Alone offers short daily readings of spiritual encouragement, comfort and renewal for those seeking guidance in this busy, confusing world. These words of teaching about the Little Way of love, trust, surrender, are selected mainly from The Story of a Soul, the autobiography of Therese of Lisieux, and various of her letters, poems and counsels. Therese, a young French nineteenth-century nun, is loved around the world for the simplicity and honesty of her Christian faith.

How to Pray Stephen Cottrell, 2010-09-30 How to Pray is a basic primer on prayer. It will get you started, keep you going, and uses every stage of life and its varied events to renew and expand your understanding of being alive to God. Completely honest about the struggles and difficulties everyone encounters, it will help you discover how natural prayer is, even when you least feel like it. With his characteristic humour and realism, Stephen Cottrell offers a guide from an experienced beginner for those starting out on the Christian journey and for those who feel there is more to discover. Full of stories and examples from the Christian tradition and daily life, simple principles to follow, some prayers to use, and helpful insights from spiritual writers through the ages, this is a book to inspire over and over again. A great gift for confirmation or adult baptism. Previously published as Praying Through Life.

The following passages have been carefully selected as examples of the countless pearls of wisdom to be found in this special book.

On Mortification I resolved to lead a life of greater devoutness and mortification than ever before When I speak of mortification I don't mean the kind of penance practiced by the saints There are great souls who practice every sort of mortification from childhood but I am not like them All I did was to break my self will check a hasty reply and do little kindnesses without making a fuss about them and lots of similar things So I prepared myself to become a bride of Jesus Give with No Thought of Results On working with the Carmelite novices I throw to the right and the left to my little birds the good seed that the good God puts in my little hand And then the seed does what it will I don't concern myself about it Sometimes the results are as if I had thrown nothing other times something good results But the good God says to me Give give always without concerning yourself with results Keeping the Fire of Love Burning When I am feeling nothing when I am incapable of praying or practicing virtue then is the moment for seeking opportunities of things which please Jesus more than mastery of the world when suffered with generosity For example a smile a friendly word when I would want to say nothing or put on a look of annoyance etc Infinite Love Oh How beautiful is our religion instead of contracting hearts as the world believes it raises them up and renders them capable of loving or loving with a love almost infinite since this love must continue after this mortal life which is given to us only for meriting the homeland of heaven where we shall find again the dear ones whom we have loved on earth Wanting Only to Die of Love How gentle and merciful God is I no longer want anything except to love until I die of love I am free and fear nothing I am not even afraid and it used to be my greatest fear that my illness will drag out and make me a burden to the community I do not refuse the struggle The Lord is a rock upon which I stand He teaches my hands to fight and my fingers to war He is my protector and I have hoped in Him
