By what Authority? Anthony Ernest Harvey, 2001 It has come to be taken for granted that churches should issue reports and make statements on public affairs anything from unemployment to prisons This text examines a number of such reports issued over the past 15 years The Church and the Social Problem Samuel Plantz, 1906 Trollope and the Church of England Jill Durey, 2002-10-23 Trollope and the Church of England is the first detailed examination of Trollope's attitude towards his Anglican faith and the Church and the impact this had on his works Durey controversially explodes the myth that Trollope's most popular characters just happened to be clerical and were simply a skit on the Church by revealing the true extent of his lifelong fascination with religion A Theology of Power and Privilege Joseph Caldwell, 2024-08-22 A Theology of Power and Privilege makes the bold assumption that it is possible to develop an antiracist theology within a constructive evangelical theological method It examines Black Liberation Theology's claims of embedded racism within White theological systems and then asks both if Reformed North American Evangelicalism evidences racism within its theology and if so how might that be addressed biblically and doctrinally while remaining true to the theological essence of evangelicalism Along the way the author engages critically with an evangelical tradition represented by John Calvin Jonathan Edwards Charles Hobbs and Carl F H Henry and considers it in the light of the critique of James Cone Having identified racism within the theological tradition the author then offers a constructive evangelical theology of power and privilege that he accesses as truly antiracist In pursuit of this theological conclusion the author explores biblical texts on liberation subjection and obedience and applies his conclusions to constructive work on the Doctrine of God This is done within an evangelical hermeneutical methodology that privileges the biblical text This book will be of interest to evangelicals who are engaged in debates around race racism and social justice either theologically or historically and theologians generally interested in the application of hermeneutics to theological method It will also be of interest to anyone regardless of tradition as a guide to how white theologians can take seriously the contributions and value of the Black intellectual tradition to their work The Church as a voice of the Poor in the light of the Pact of the Catacombs of 1965 (Domitilla) Leonard Oshiokhamele Anetekhai, 2021-04-26 The stance of 40 Bishops who put pen on paper to dedicate their lives and work for the Poor is in our today's world an example worth emulating and promoting To live amid plenty and not feel the pains misery and above all the anger in the eyes of the Poor is a grave sin that individuals societies and organisations with all pleasure are willing to embrace Often the question is raised Who are the Poor and the answer therein this piece of research work tries to articulate When humans created in God's image are left without essential assistance to lick their wounds as Lazarus did their rights trampled upon their voices silenced and even their deserved wages barely or not paid then we speak of the Poor In this group of persons the Poor the Bishops of the Catacomb Pack of 1965 Domitilla reminds Individuals societies organisations and indeed the Church and her leaders to see the necessity to align human social and pastoral life in the task of caring for the Poor The Catholic Church and

Democracy in Chile and Peru Michael Fleet, Brian H. Smith, 2015-11-15 Recent changes imposed by the Vatican may redefine the Chilean and Peruvian Church's involvement in politics and social issues Fleet and Smith argue that the Vatican has been moving to restrict the Chilean and Peruvian Church's social and political activities Fleet and Smith have gathered documentary evidence conducted interviews with Catholic elites and compiled surveys of lay Catholics in the region The result will help chart the future of the Church and Chile and Peru
