Business Of Fancydancing:

The Business of Fancydancing Sherman Alexie, 2003 Screenplay of Sherman Alexie's second film which Alexie wrote produced and directed The film uses the same title as Alexie's debut collection of poems and short stories The Business of Fancydancing Sherman Alexie, 1992 Collects short stories and poems from the author focusing on life on a Native American reservation in eastern Washington state THE BUSINESS OF FANCYDANCING, 2002 Understanding Sherman Alexie Daniel Grassian, 2005 In this first book length examination of Native American poet novelist filmmaker and short story writer Sherman Alexie Daniel Grassian offers a comprehensive look at a writer immersed in traditional Native American as well as mainstream American culture Grassian explores Alexie's ability to counteract lingering stereotypes of Native Americans his challenges to the dominant American history and his suspicion of the New Age movement The business of fancydancing Sherman Alexie, Evan Adams, Michelle St. John, Gene Tagaban, 2003 Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2015-04-22 Presents an encyclopedia of American Indian literature in an alphabetical format listing authors and their works Native Americans on Film M. Elise Marubbio, Eric L. Buffalohead, 2013-02-22 An essential book for courses on Native film indigenous media not to mention more general courses A very impressive and useful collection Randolph Lewis author of Navajo Talking Picture The film industry and mainstream popular culture are notorious for promoting stereotypical images of Native Americans the noble and ignoble savage the pronoun challenged sidekick the ruthless warrior the female drudge the princess the sexualized maiden the drunk and others Over the years Indigenous filmmakers have both challenged these representations and moved past them offering their own distinct forms of cinematic expression Native Americans on Film draws inspiration from the Indigenous film movement bringing filmmakers into an intertextual conversation with academics from a variety of disciplines The resulting dialogue opens a myriad of possibilities for engaging students with ongoing debates What is Indigenous film Who is an Indigenous filmmaker What are Native filmmakers saying about Indigenous film and their own work This thought provoking text offers theoretical approaches to understanding Native cinema includes pedagogical strategies for teaching particular films and validates the different voices approaches and worldviews that emerge across the movement Accomplished scholars in the emerging field of Native film studies Marubbio and Buffalohead focus clearly on the needs of this field They do scholars and students of Native film a great service by reprinting four seminal and provocative essays James Ruppert author of Meditation in Contemporary Native American Literature Succeeds in depicting the complexities in study teaching and creating Native film Regardless of an individual's level of knowledge and expertise in Native film Native Americans on Film is a valuable read for anyone interested in this topic Studies in American Indian Literatures Engaged Resistance Dean Rader, 2011-04-01 From Sherman Alexie's films to the poetry and fiction of Louise Erdrich and Leslie Marmon Silko to the paintings of Jaune Quick To See Smith and the sculpture of Edgar Heap of Birds Native American movies literature and art have become increasingly influential garnering critical praise and enjoying mainstream popularity Recognizing that the time has come for a critical assessment of this exceptional artistic output and its significance to American Indian and American issues Dean Rader offers the first interdisciplinary examination of how American Indian artists filmmakers and writers tell their own stories Beginning with rarely seen photographs documents and paintings from the Alcatraz Occupation in 1969 and closing with an innovative reading of the National Museum of the American Indian Rader initiates a conversation about how Native Americans have turned to artistic expression as a means of articulating cultural sovereignty autonomy and survival Focusing on figures such as author director Sherman Alexie Flight Face and Smoke Signals artist Jaune Quick To See Smith director Chris Eyre Skins author Louise Erdrich Jacklight The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse sculptor Edgar Heap of Birds novelist Leslie Marmon Silko sculptor Allen Houser filmmaker and actress Valerie Red Horse and other writers including Joy Harjo LeAnne Howe and David Treuer Rader shows how these artists use aesthetic expression as a means of both engagement with and resistance to the dominant U S culture Raising a constellation of new questions about Native cultural production Rader greatly increases our understanding of what aesthetic modes of resistance can accomplish that legal or political actions cannot as well as why Native peoples are turning to creative forms of resistance to assert deeply held ethical values

Imagic Moments Lee Schweninger, 2013-05-01 In Indigenous North American film Native Americans tell their own stories and thereby challenge a range of political and historical contradictions including egregious misrepresentations by Hollywood Although Indians in film have long been studied especially as characters in Hollywood westerns Indian film itself has received relatively little scholarly attention In Imagic Moments Lee Schweninger offers a much needed corrective examining films in which the major inspiration the source material and the acting are essentially Native Schweninger looks at a selection of mostly narrative fiction films from the United States and Canada and places them in historical and generic contexts Exploring films such as Powwow Highway Smoke Signals and Skins he argues that in and of themselves these films constitute and in fact emphatically demonstrate forms of resistance and stories of survival as they talk back to Hollywood Self representation itself can be seen as a valid form of resistance and as an aspect of a cinema of sovereignty in which the Indigenous peoples represented are the same people who engage in the filming and who control the camera Despite their low budgets and often nonprofessional acting Indigenous films succeed in being all the more engaging in their own right and are indicative of the complexity vibrancy and survival of myriad contemporary Native cultures

Literary and Cinematic Reservation in Selected Works of Native American Author Sherman Alexie Meredith K. James, 2005 This study explores the importance of the literary reservation of the mind in twentieth century native American literature The book examines the contradictory nature of what the literary reservation space means primarily in the works of Sherman Alexie but also includes discussions of works by N Scott Momaday Leslie Marmon Silko and Louise Erdrich Authors often recreate reservation space in positive ways so their characters are able to survive colonial imposition and administration The book deals with how Native authors reconcile fragmented identities with the landscape and how damaging perceptions and policies regarding Native peoples have contributed to the reservation of the mind Reading Native American Literature Bruce A. Goebel, 2004 High school and college teachers interested in offering units or courses on Native American literature have often had to carve out new teaching strategies because ready resources and guides are scarce In Reading Native American Literature A Teacher's Guide Bruce A Goebel offers innovative and practical suggestions about how to introduce students to a range of Native American works Grounded in the idea that studying tribal cultures will enable students to gain deeper insights into Native literatures each chapter helps teachers recognize what students need to know and then provides them with supporting materials and activities that will lead them to more informed interpretations of the literature After considering ways in which a study of Native American literature addresses gaps in standard American history textbooks Goebel discusses the complexity that lies in the language of race In the following chapters he offers in depth study of specific texts including early Native American poetry James Welch's Fools Crow Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony and Sherman Alexie's The Business of Fancydancing Reproducible copies of traditional tribally specific poems and stories are linked to the larger texts being studied In addition to a brief annotated bibliography of resources for teaching Native American literature the chapters also contain histories a glossary and teaching activities Magill's Cinema Annual Christine Tomassini, 2003-05-16 Magill's Cinema Annual provides comprehensive information on the theatrical releases of each year Featured are extensive essays cast and character listings production credits running time country of origin MPAA rating nine comprehensive indexes and more Studies in American Indian Literatures, 2008 Magill's Literary Annual 1993 Frank Northen Magill, 1993 Reviews of significant fiction and nonfiction published in 1992 Provides coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year and that will stand up to the test of time Cultural Studies in the EFL Classroom Werner Delanoy, Laurenz Volkmann, 2006
