*I remember when I was the twinkle in my daddy's eyes.
Then he left one day
without saying good-bye.*

Mr. Gabe Hershel Marise, 2022-07-19 This book I pray expresses that the suffering a child endures because of a traumatic childhood does not have to be the determining factor in deciding the outcome of our lives The kind of life trauma a child or anyone goes through should not in any way determine their ability to overcome these traumas and have a productive adult life It is my belief that with a great Creator God and his divine intervention in our lives we as his children will be carried through life s traumatic experiences It is my belief that I and all of humankind were created for a great purpose The writing of this book or its purpose is not to gather sympathy but the opposite to explain that an individual does not have to allow their childhood or economic environment to set the standard for the rest of their lives In my childhood I attempted to subconsciously close myself off mentally or emotionally from what was occurring This denial allowed me a way of surviving through early life I called out to God the great Creator for help and guidance many times Without the help and the great love of God these traumas would probably have killed me from the shock From an early age and throughout my adult life I ve had to find ways to deal with my traumatic past With God and a drifter named Mr Gabe who showed up at all the right times like a guardian angel who seemed to know a lot about the same God my grandmother talked about I did survive throughout these traumas and have lived a relatively good life and achieved challenges that could only have been possible with God s love

Dead Woman Pickney Yvonne Shorter Brown, 2022-04-01 Dead Woman Pickney chronicles Yvonne Shorter Brown s life growing up in Jamaica between 1943 and 1965 and teaching in Canada from 1969 Told with stridency and humour the stories include both personal experience and history Taking up the haunting memories of childhood along with persistent racial marginalization of Black people both globally and in Canada the author sets out to construct a narrative that at once explains her own origins in the former slave society of Jamaica and traces the outsider status of Africa and its peoples The author s quest to understand the absence of her mother and her mother s people from her life is at the heart of the narrative The author struggles through life to discover the identity of her mother in the face of silence from her father s brutal family In this updated edition she adds a coda finding mother constructed from archives genealogy letters and journals Initially published in 2010 this second edition includes expanded text and a foreword by Sonja

Boon author of What the Oceans Remember Manhattan Transfer John Dos Passos, 1925 SC SPCOLL copy 1 From the James and Margaret Beveridge Fonds Once Innocent April Baraszewics, 2012-11-12 In this heartfelt memoir April goes into great detail about the physical psychological and sexual abuse she and her young siblings suffered at the hands of their father At the age of three April was tortured beaten belittled and abused by her alcoholic and drug addicted father a father who beat and played mind games games that left her fearing for her life She learned how to survive by silence and silence alone April slept in a corner in her bedroom her clothes raunchy with urine April did everything she could to be a good girl so her father would love her but all she got in return was a beating to reassure her father she would remain silent and not speak a word to anyone No other family member knew of the abuse April was suffering nor did they care April had no one to turn to all she had was her prayers prayers that her father would find her a good child and love her This memoir will walk you through each struggle as April fights for love and happiness and survival This memoir speaks the truth about child abuse and the choices we are all faced in order to survive The Vermonter Charles Spooner Forbes, Charles R. Cummings, 1911
