By Way Of People:

A history of the Scottish people from the earliest times Thomas Napier Thomson, 1893 Ethnomethodology at Work
Peter Tolmie, 2016-04-22 Bringing together one of the most important bodies of research into people's working practices this volume outlines the specific character of the ethnomethodological approach to work providing an introduction to the key conceptual resources ethnomethodology has drawn upon in its studies and a set of substantive chapters that examine how people work from a foundational perspective With contributions from leading experts in the field including Graham Button John Hughes and Wes Sharrock Ethnomethodology at Work explores the contribution that ethnomethodological studies continue to make to our understanding of the ways in which people actually accomplish work from day to day As such it will appeal not only to those working in the areas of ethnomethodology and conversation analysis but also to those with interests in the sociology of work and organisations The Compiled Laws of the State of Michigan, 1897 Michigan, Lewis Montgomery Miller, 1899 Communicating with Normal and Retarded Children W. I. Fraser, R. Grieve, 2014-05-15
Communicating with Normal and Retarded Children explores the way in which normal children acquire language and the mistakes they make It aims to trace the common growth between professions in understanding of normal language development and the retarded person's language and to encourage research particularly of an interdisciplinary kind This book is organized into five main sections The contributors provide different professional perspectives of how and why the mentally retarded get their communication wrong and what remedies can be applied They also present their own research findings often in little explored areas or from a novel angle and offer their opinion on the types and topics of research that should be carried out This book will be of interest to academic and clinical psychologists educators linguists advisors and tutors in nursing and social studies child health doctors psychiatrists and a range of therapists *People v.
