Entertainment Media and Communication Nicholas David Bowman, 2024-10-21 Although not considered a formal area of study, scholarship on the uses, content, and effects of entertaining media has been central to communication studies and related fields for more than a century. The serious study of entertainment seems paradoxical as we presume entertainment to be the lighter side of our daily lives. Yet, as revealed in this volume, entertainment media serve as cultural artifacts that shape our understandings of various peoples and publics in ways that invite deeper, immersive, and increasingly interactive engagement. On this backdrop, Entertainment Media and Communication serves as a reference guide for canonical and foundational research into media, entertainment, and a collection of emerging and updated theories and models core to the study of media, entertainment, in the 21st century. Across more than forty chapters and with a diverse and inclusive list of authors, this volume provides a broad yet nuanced view into entertainment media and communication scholarship. The contributors explore its foundations, define and extend key concepts and theories through myriad lenses, discuss unique considerations of digital media, and divine future paths for scholarly inquiry.

Basics of Branding Jay Gronlund, 2013-08-23 Smart branding is essential for success, yet it is often misunderstood. Developing a brand that is relevant, distinct, and emotionally compelling can be very difficult for many managers, mainly because they don't realize exactly what and how much goes into this branding process. This book will explain this process. In an easy-to-understand writing style, Gronlund will show you the fundamentals that will help develop a value proposition that will excite customers. Branding is all about creating a message or an impression that makes an impact and creates a rational and emotional connection with a customer. Forming a bond of trust and comfort will build brand equity, i.e., how people value your brand and customer loyalty. We are living in a dynamic, transformative global economy with mind-boggling advances in technology. Managers today can easily become preoccupied with social media vehicles and the innovative features of electronic devices and hence neglect the importance of the content or the message Adhering to the core elements of positioning and branding will help them develop more emotionally rich and powerful content And B2B managers will better understand and discover the real value of good branding so that their marketing and sales communications will go beyond product features and emphasize relevant benefits that will strengthen their relationships with targeted customers
