of Commerce in Japan ,2004 Traction Gabriel Weinberg,Justin Mares,2015-10-06 Most startups don t fail because they can t build a product Most startups fail because they can t get traction Startup advice tends to be a lot of platitudes repackaged with new buzzwords but Traction is something else entirely As Gabriel Weinberg and Justin Mares learned from their own experiences building a successful company is hard For every startup that grows to the point where it can go public or be profitably acquired hundreds of others sputter and die Smart entrepreneurs know that the key to success isn t the originality of your offering the brilliance of your team or how much money you raise It s how consistently you can grow and acquire new customers or for a free service users That s called traction and it makes everything else easier fund raising hiring press partnerships acquisitions Talk is cheap but traction is hard evidence that you re on the right path Traction will teach you the nineteen channels you can use to build a customer base and how to pick the right ones for your business It draws on inter views with more than forty successful founders including Jimmy Wales Wikipedia Alexis Ohanian reddit Paul English Kayak and Dharmesh Shah HubSpot You ll learn for example how to Find and use offline ads and other channels your competitors probably aren t using Get targeted media coverage that will help you reach more customers Boost the effectiveness of your email marketing campaigns by automating staggered sets of prompts and updates Improve your search engine rankings and advertising through online tools and research Weinberg and Mares know that there s no one size fits all solution every startup faces unique challenges and will benefit from a blend of these nineteen traction channels They offer a three step framework called Bullseye to figure out which ones will work best for your business But no matter how you apply them the lessons and examples in Traction will help you create and sustain the growth your business desperately needs as much as there is a lot of truth there Affiliate Marketing does not only have to take place online For example affiliate marketing is also where a plumber gives a client a discount for referring him or her to a new client It is the same concept This kind of marketing happens a lot in the real world but people do not trace or coordinate it as much as is the case with online marketing Business owners can ask their customers how they came to know about them in an effort to learn about their client base but they cannot get as much information as they would be using online tracking The growing online market has made this type of marketing more popular and profitable It has also made it easier to grow and expand whatever type of business an individual is in with the help of numerous professional marketers who will not necessarily appear on their payroll Therefore while its history started long before the invention of the Internet the Internet has transformed it and made it widely available to the masses You will start by learning all about the ins and outs of affiliate marketing and what you need to get your feet wet in the marketing world You will then learn about the importance of choosing the right niche and how to find one that will provide you with a sustainable passive income stream for years to come From there you will learn the key steps to creating a website that will attract the right type of users as well as the importance of SEO and how to ensure that your new website shows up in as many different sets of search results as possible Finally you will learn just what it takes to create the type of quality content that ensures people keeping back for more month after month and year after year Every effort was made to ensure it is full of as much useful information as possible please enjoy Thank You for Firing Me! Kitty
