According to Wikipedia, newsletters are published by clubs, churches, societies, associations, and businesses—especially companies—to provide information of interest to members, customers, or employees. Google's definition of a newsletter is, "a bulletin issued periodically to the members of a society, business, or organization." A newsletter may be considered "grey literature". Newsletters delivered electronically via email (e-newsletters) have gained rapid acceptance for the same reasons email in general has gained popularity over printed correspondence.

Some newsletters are created as money-making ventures and sold directly to subscribers. Sending newsletters to customers and prospects is common marketing strategy, which can have benefits and drawbacks.
