Working Mother ,2002-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

Getting Me Cheap Amanda Freeman,Lisa Dodson,2022-11-29 Two groundbreaking sociologists explore the way the American dream is built on the backs of working poor women Many Americans take comfort and convenience for granted We eat at nice restaurants order groceries online and hire nannies to care for kids Getting Me Cheap is a riveting portrait of the lives of the low wage workers primarily women who make this lifestyle possible Sociologists Lisa Dodson and Amanda Freeman follow women in the food health care home care and other low wage industries as they struggle to balance mothering with bad jobs and without public aid While these women tend to the needs of well off families their own children frequently step into premature adult roles providing care for siblings and aging family members Based on years of in depth field work and hundreds of eye opening interviews Getting Me Cheap explores how America traps millions of women and their children into lives of stunted opportunity and poverty in service of giving others of us the lives we seek Destined to rank with works like Evicted and Nickle and Dimed for its revelatory glimpse into how our society functions behind the scenes Getting Me Cheap also offers a way forward with both policy solutions and a keen moral vision for organizing women across class lines

Mothering and Archaeology Laura Seifert,Suzanne M. Spencer-Wood,2025-03-21 Mothering and Archaeology brings to light new insights connecting mothering in the past and present by exploring all aspects of this important but frequently under valued and thus neglected subject and is underpinned by feminist theorizing of motherhood and mothering Taking a comprehensive approach this book explores the archaeology of mothers in private and public places in the past and present the patriarchal institution of motherhood versus actual mothering practices the burdens and joys of mothering in archaeology and the second shift often pressed upon women With the inclusion of intersectional research on diverse historic ideologies and practices of motherhood and mothering that varied among classes races and ethnic groups the book also spans a wide range of temporal geographic and cultural differences around the world from Ancient Egypt and Iron Age Europe to Aztec Mexico colonial Yucatan colonial and historic Europe America and Australia and modern archaeologists in America and Europe Going beyond historical practices the book also examines how female identifying archaeologists usually perform a disproportionate amount of mothering labor particularly emotional labor both in their careers and in the home Further it also addresses how becoming a mother affects women s archaeological practices and careers and discusses why women are doing most of the deeply engaged community archaeology with all of its additional relationships and social navigation of emotional labor Bringing together research on motherhood and mothering in the past with women s contemporary experiences of the relationships of mothering to archaeology this book provides new insights to researchers in archaeology anthropology public history and women s studies
