The Stranger at the Feast Tom

Boylston, 2018-01-12 At publication date, a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. The Stranger at the Feast is a pathbreaking ethnographic study of one of the world's oldest and least understood religious traditions. Based on long-term ethnographic research on the Zege peninsula in northern Ethiopia, the author tells the story of how people have understood large-scale religious change by following local transformations in hospitality, ritual, prohibition, and feeding practices. Ethiopia has undergone radical upheaval in the transition from the imperial era of Haile Selassie to the modern secular state but the secularization of the state has been met with the widespread revival of popular religious practice For Orthodox Christians in Zege everything that matters about religion comes back to how one eats and fasts with others Boylston shows how practices of feeding and avoidance have remained central even as their meaning and purpose has dramatically changed from a means of marking class distinctions within Orthodox society to a marker of the difference between Orthodox Christians and other religions within the contemporary Ethiopian state The Advocate ,2001-08-14 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Working Mother ,2002-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives
