Examining Internet and Technology around the World Laura M. Steckman, 2020-12-02 This book offers comparative insights into the challenges and opportunities surrounding emerging technology and the internet as it is used and perceived throughout the world providing students with cross cultural and cross national perspectives This volume examines issues pertaining to the internet and technology including access and censorship alternative energy technologies artificial intelligence autonomous robots cyberbullying cybercrime e learning GMOs online privacy and virtual and augmented reality For each topic the volume features eight country level perspectives that span the world to allow for comparisons of different nations specific approaches to the technology or issue This encyclopedia takes a new direction in understanding the importance and impact of emerging technologies on the world showing that even when experiencing similar technologically related challenges or advances these technologies do not form one size fits all solutions for every nation and population Even when nations develop similar technologies human dimensions from policy to social norms to culture influence people and society across the world differently

Decolonizing Marketing Theory and Practice Hasan Gilani,2024-11-22 In academic institutions worldwide the call to decolonize the syllabus curriculum and the entire university experience is growing louder and more urgent Yet the conversation must extend beyond blogs hashtags and social media trends This book dives deep into the critical need to challenge and transform the foundations of marketing education Addressing the urgent need for deeper conversations this book delves into the multifaceted process of decolonizing marketing theory and practice to foster a more inclusive field Through an insightful collection of contributions this book critically examines the entrenched roots of colonization capitalism and inequality urging us to move beyond simply adding non white authors and non Western case studies to the curriculum Decolonization should begin with a focus on inclusivity and equality progressing towards the recognition and exploration of diverse contexts and paradigms Through rigorous analysis and innovative perspectives this book identifies key areas in marketing pedagogy that require decolonization urging a move away from exclusionary practices and Western centric ideologies It identifies crucial areas where texts knowledge and contexts need to be decolonized advocating for a paradigm shift from a culture of exclusion and Western centric ideologies to one that embraces inclusivity and a broad range of philosophical perspectives from the non Western world Aimed at researchers and academics in the field of marketing this book offers a profound exploration of teaching and learning dynamics from a more inclusive and diverse perspective By fostering engagement with a wider audience it seeks to enrich the discourse around marketing education with a more nuanced and enriched perspective Decolonizing Marketing Theory and Practice is an essential resource for those committed to creating a more equitable and comprehensive understanding of marketing in a global context

Modern Political Campaigns Michael D. Cohen,2025-04-15 Dr Michael D Cohen a 30 year veteran of working on teaching and writing about political campaigns shows readers how campaigns are organized explains state of the art tools of the trade and reveals how some of the most interesting people in politics got their big breaks He combines academic insights and practical advice that will be of interest to practitioners and students considering careers in politics and people interested in how elections are won The second edition updated to include a new chapter on how campaigns are using artificial intelligence and what that means for democracy has been completely revised throughout to provide readers with an up to date understanding of how candidates succeed
